New Fuel Oil Tax Injures Industry Delegation Says

Will Increase Taxes From Twenty to Forty-three Per Cent on Few Industries Representatives of Pulp Mills, Transportation Companies and Building Owners Tell Cabinet; Pulp Mills Placed at Disadvantage by Two Oil Tax Levies, Increasing Production Cost $1.05 Per Ton.

Speaking as representatives of 90 per cent of the fuel oil users of British Columbia, a strong delegation this morning emphatically stated that the proposed fuel oil tax mentioned in the Shelly budget would increase their taxes from 20 to 43 per cent, and in one particular instance would be equivalent to the entire net earnings of one company for the year.

The delegation represented the Powell River Pulp and Paper Company, Pacific Mills, B.C. Pulp and Paper Company, Canadian Pacific Railway, Canadian National Railway, Union Steamship Company, and owners of office buildings and apartment houses.

It was strongly represented that a tax, presumably for the benefit of the whole of the Province, was to be mainly carried by six interests and it was suggested that the proposed measure be limited to the basis of taxation changed until some fairer method had been worked out.

PAPER COST UP
For the pulp interests it was pointed out that a tax of half a cent a gallon, which it was presumed from the estimated revenue of $550,000 was proposed, in addition to the half cent a gallon import tax charged by the federal Government would raise paper production by $1.05 a ton and in some cases more, and this would apply to the entire product sold for 1930. The pulp industry was strongly pressed to meet the competition of foreign mills, particularly those of Washington and Oregon, and the proposed tax would place them at a considerable disadvantage with those states. The B.C. mills were also in competition with mills where labor was cheaper and even in the (Concluded on Page 14)

SAANICH WANTS NEW WATER PACT WITH VICTORIA

Existing Agreement Expires at End of Month and Pour-parlers Opened

Saanich is seeking a new water agreement with the city of Victoria, to take the place of an agreement which expires at the end of this month. It was learned at the city hall to-day, Reeve Crouch and R. F. Sewell, on behalf of Saanich, called on Mayor Anselcomb this morning for an informal discussion of the plan of renewal.

With nothing officially has been released as the result of the preliminary conference, it is understood that the reeve of Saanich has asked for a material reduction in the price of water furnished to the district by the city, stressing the need of irrigation in an agricultural district.

The present price paid by Saanich is at the rate of 7.5 cents per 1,000 gallons for the first 125,000 gallons used, 7 cents per 1,000 gallons for the next 65,000 gallons, and 6 cents per 1,000 gallons for all over 240,000 gallons. Saanich has not yet reached the maximum consumption set under the scale, but drew in the neighborhood of 190,000 gallons from city mains last year.

Further conferences are to be held, the meeting this morning taking the nature of an informal introduction of the question of the new agreement.

Seattle Autoists Get Cheap Gasoline Now

Canadian Press
Seattle, March 13.—Seattle's gasoline war was in full swing today following more than three weeks of skirmishing between station operators and a few of the larger distributors.

Three large distributors—the General Petroleum Company and the Texas Company and the Olinore Oil Company, which entered the Northwest field but a few days ago—announced wholesale prices of 12½ cents a gallon.

Other companies held wholesale prices at 14½ cents to-day, officials said. Retail prices have varied from 14 to 18 cents a gallon in Seattle for more than a week. Station operators supplied by the three cutting companies said to-day retail prices would probably stay at about 14 cents a gallon.

MANILA IS SCENE OF BIG FIRE

One Death Reported; 5,000 Homeless After Five Blocks Destroyed

Scores of Residents of City of Philippines Injured During Blaze

Manila, March 11.—One thousand houses were burned, it is estimated, 5,000 persons were made homeless and one person was killed and scores injured in a spectacular fire which swept Manila last night and early to-day. The conflagration was in the Singalong district, where five blocks were leveled. The Red Cross established a tent city to aid sufferers.

Police and constabulary were searching the smoking ruins at 2.30 a.m., seeking casualties. Several children were reported missing.

SUDDEN DEATH OF PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN

R. E. Brett Succumbs Suddenly to Attack, Following Noon Meal To-day

Was For Many Years Associated With Business World in This City

The death occurred with tragic suddenness shortly after noon to-day at his home 1016 Carberry gardens, of one of this city's most highly respected business men, Robert E. Brett, of Brett and Ker real estate and financial house.

Mr. Brett collapsed soon after his noon-day meal at home, and passed away almost immediately. He had gone home from his business office about 11 o'clock this morning, complaining of indisposition.

The late Mr. Brett was about 52½ years of age. He was born in Toronto and came to this coast over forty years ago, first taking up his residence in Vancouver. Coming to Victoria a few years later he was connected with the Attorney-General's department under the Turner administration. He subsequently went into business with J. H. Greer, under the firm name of Brett and Greer.

JOINED KEE BROTHERS
On the withdrawal of Mr. Greer from business, Mr. Brett became associated with Burdick Bros., and more recently joined in partnership with his two nephews, R. H. K. and B. R. Ker, under the firm name of Brett and Ker.

The widow was formerly Miss S. L. Heisterman, a member of one of Victoria's well-known pioneer families.

Mr. Brett was a prominent member of the Masonic Order, holding the thirty-third degree. He was at one time secretary of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia and was a past master of Lodge No. 1, of which chapter he was one of the original members.

He was also associated with the "Burrard" organization, of which he was one of the first officers.

The late Mr. Brett was possessed of many amiable qualities, and possessed a kind and unassuming nature through which he was held in high esteem throughout the community, especially in the business world in which he enjoyed a wide acquaintance.

Announcement regarding the funeral arrangements will be made later.

Canadian Press Cable via Reuter's, Pretoria, South Africa, March 13.—South Africa has had a record crop of maize this season. The amount of the crop is estimated to be more than 25,000,000 bags of a weight of 200 pounds each. This represents an unprecedented figure and an increase of thirty-seven per cent over last year's growth.

NEW RULES ISSUED FOR B.C. FISHING

Canadian Press
Ottawa, March 13.—Complete revision of the fisheries regulations for British Columbia has been adopted under an order-in-council of the Federal Government, and a number of important changes in the regulations have thereby been made, says a statement issued by the fisheries branch. Under the constitution, the right of making fisheries regulations for all the provinces rests with the Federal authorities.

Among the more important changes now made in the British Columbia regulations, it is pointed, are the fixing of July 5 in each year as the opening of the fishing season.

AGED EARL OF COVENTRY DIES IN ENGLAND
Passing of Father of Hon. T. G. Coventry, Ex-M.P.P. For Saanich, Is Mourned

Canadian Press
Worcester, Eng., March 13.—The Earl of Coventry, ninth of his line, died to-day at his home, Croome Court, Worcester, in his ninety-second year. He had been ill a fortnight.

The aged earl was known as "the Father of the House of Lords," was one of the most famous sportsmen of the country. He was the most famous sporting nobleman of three reigns. He was a peer when Queen Victoria had been but six years on her throne and his record of eighty-seven years in the peerage exceeds the previous record of Viscount Oulins, whose tenure of title was from 1716 to 1802.

He knew the Duke of Wellington when the victor of Waterloo still had a good spell of life ahead of him. (Concluded on Page 14)

NEW PLAN FOR IMMIGRATION IS OUTLINED

Provincial Control of Immigrants Is Proposed Under Latest Scheme

W. J. Egan, Deputy Minister, Lays Details Before Premier Tolmie

Full details with regard to the plan whereby the provincial governments will be given control of immigration were given to Premier Tolmie in an interview with W. J. Egan, Deputy Minister of Immigration, who was in the city yesterday to acquaint the government with the new arrangements. Mr. Egan presented a memorandum of these details, which states that the federal government proposes to recruit and admit only such immigrants as the provinces desire and request.

The memorandum submits the following proposals: "The provinces if not satisfied with the admission of immigrants as now provided for in the immigration regulations, are to suggest what changes they would like to have embodied, either extending or curtailing the movement on the grounds of relationship or occupation."

"The provinces, it is stated, will be responsible for receiving, placing or otherwise distributing whatever immigrants they request."

"It may be pointed out that this is not a serious matter unless the programme is enlarged from what it is now because:—

"(a) A considerable proportion of our immigrants join relatives or friends and do not require any direction."

"(b) Various religious or other organizations interest themselves in the placement and after-care of immigrants."

POOL HEAD SAYS COAL MEN DEFEATED PLAN

Canadian Press
Regina, March 13.—Attitude taken by "coal people" in Canada forced abandonment of a British Government proposal which might have aided wheat shipments from Canada to Britain. This light on the conversations between Canadian Wheat Pool officials and Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Lord Privy Seal and Minister of Employment in the British Government, was contained in an address made here to-day by A. J. McPhail, president of the Canadian Wheat Pool.

"We were prepared to recommend, for the serious consideration of our board, a certain proposal made by Mr. Thomas, that I think would possibly have facilitated the desired developments," stated Mr. McPhail, speaker at a meeting of the Regina Board of Trade. "However, due to the very strong attitude taken by coal people on this side of the water, the whole plan I think has been dropped for the time being, at least."

REFUSES LIQUOR CORRESPONDENCE

Not in Public Interests to Produce It, Says Attorney-General Pooley

It was not in the public interests to produce all correspondence between any minister of the crown and between any official of any department and the Liquor Control Board, Attorney-General Pooley stated in the Legislature yesterday in speaking to a motion in the name of Capt. Ian Mackenzie, Liberal, North Vancouver.

Capt. Mackenzie moved the motion without comment. Mr. Pooley replied that in refusing to produce inter-departmental correspondence he was following a precedent of the former administration.

T. D. Pattullo, leader of the opposition, replied that the former administration would allow the files to be seen by opposition members on request. This government was refusing to allow public documents to be seen. "Have you any objection to the opposition seeing these files?" he asked Mr. Pooley.

"Absolutely," replied the Attorney-General. "The file was heavy," he said, and it would take considerable time to produce it. He explained that an error had been made in printing the amendment last year, so that it read as if all estates of over $30,000 which went to direct relatives, were exempted from duty instead of estates up to that amount. The amendment was to make the legislation which was forecast in the budget last year perfectly clear. He read a circular letter which had been sent out, warning those interested in the legislation last year of the error which had been made.

Second reading was given to a bill to amend the Hospitals Act, which makes payments possible out of consolidated revenue, instead of from the liquor profits, which were formerly paid to the Provincial Secretary for that purpose.

The Village Municipality Act was given second reading without comment on the understanding it would be dealt with in committee stage. Second reading was given the County Courts Act. A bill to amend the Mutual Fire Insurance Companies Act was introduced.

WOMAN BEATS MAN

Alameda, Calif., March 13.—Enraged at an alleged attack on her nine-year-old daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Wolfe of Alameda lay in wait for the alleged attacker, a junk man, and beat him into near insensibility with a rawhide whip. When the man's junk wagon passed her house Mrs. Wolfe seized the horse's bridle and snatched the whip from the wagon. After flogging him until he appeared unconscious, she dashed into the house to call the police. Meanwhile the man staggered away and became the object of a police hunt.

PRESERVE OUR ILLUSIONS

To the Editor:—I suppose your correspondent, Ripple Van Winkle, thinks he is making a great hit in poking fun at those who want Ripple Rock preserved for sentimental reasons. I can tell him that sentiment is the biggest thing in the world, bigger than human life or property, or modern advances. It is one of the few things we old-timers have left in this world of motor cars, radios and aeroplanes and other so-called modern improvements.

My interest in Ripple Rock is sentimental, because it was part of the Seymour Narrows railroad scheme. I admit this is a dream, because no railroad has ever been built, and no one company will build it now, and none should have assumed their present attitude. This attitude is profoundly mistaken. It is to be held this year during the first week in May, and the argument is advanced that such a late date will interfere seriously with the school term. I should like to observe in the first place that it hardly seems reasonable, in view of the fact that the Sanich School Board is permitting teachers to devote a very considerable amount of time from now until the latter part of April in preparation for their own little festival, and that they are also expecting from their principals and teachers the additional work of planning, supervising and completely carrying out a musical festival, which they were to participate in the Victoria festival. In the second place, I would respectfully suggest that it is fairly well known, among educationists, that the experience and ability with that of the members of the Sanich School Board, that the pupils who during their terms in the graded schools are devoting part of their school time to part of the outside time to musical training, are almost invariably the brightest and most successful pupils. I cannot feel, therefore, that the date of our festival, which is the date of the decision of the Sanich board, and I am bound to place a great deal of reliance upon reports which have reached us to the effect that the decision was a happy one, and that the attitude of violent hostility on the part of a member of the Sanich School Board. I knew of this animosity, but could not believe that it was possible for the members of the board to be so prejudiced. The persistence of the report, however, coupled with the weakness of the reason announced for the board's action, leads me to believe that the decision is a happy one. If that is so, I can only express our regret that personal feelings should be allowed to enter into the decision of such a serious matter.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL

To the Editor:—I have been asked by the Victoria Musical Festival Association to place before the people of the

GANGSTER CAPONE NEAR FREEDOM

Chicago Crime Lord Will Go to Miami Instead of Back to Old Haunts

Sanich Municipality the position of our association in connection with the decision of the Sanich School Board and the 1930 Victoria Musical Festival.

In November last we were much surprised to receive a letter from the Sanich School Board informing us that Sanich school children would not be allowed to enter the 1930 festival, and giving as a reason the fact that we had fixed the date so late in the year that it interfered with preparation for school examinations. We could only express our regret and hope that the decision would be reconsidered.

Since I assumed the position of acting president upon the death of the late George F. Watson, I have interviewed members of the Sanich School Board who have told me emphatically that there would be no possible chance of a reconsideration and that Sanich school children would positively not be allowed to compete in this year's festival. I have also been informed through reliable sources that preparations are now under way for the holding of a small festival under the auspices of the Sanich School Board in the latter part of the month of April.

The Victoria Musical Festival Association has at all times tried to consider the interests of the school children of Victoria City and the surrounding municipalities, and we have tried throughout to make our arrangements in such a way as to serve these schools to the fullest extent possible. It will be understood, therefore, that a matter of very great regret on our part that the Board of Trustees of Sanich should have assumed their present attitude. This attitude is profoundly mistaken. It is to be held this year during the first week in May, and the argument is advanced that such a late date will interfere seriously with the school term. I should like to observe in the first place that it hardly seems reasonable, in view of the fact that the Sanich School Board is permitting teachers to devote a very considerable amount of time from now until the latter part of April in preparation for their own little festival, and that they are also expecting from their principals and teachers the additional work of planning, supervising and completely carrying out a musical festival, which they were to participate in the Victoria festival. In the second place, I would respectfully suggest that it is fairly well known, among educationists, that the experience and ability with that of the members of the Sanich School Board, that the pupils who during their terms in the graded schools are devoting part of their school time to part of the outside time to musical training, are almost invariably the brightest and most successful pupils. I cannot feel, therefore, that the date of our festival, which is the date of the decision of the Sanich board, and I am bound to place a great deal of reliance upon reports which have reached us to the effect that the decision was a happy one, and that the attitude of violent hostility on the part of a member of the Sanich School Board. I knew of this animosity, but could not believe that it was possible for the members of the board to be so prejudiced. If that is so, I can only express our regret that personal feelings should be allowed to enter into the decision of such a serious matter.

WILL NOT GO TO CHICAGO

Capone knows it would not be healthy to rush to Chicago immediately after his release. He knows what sort of "come-out" party has been planned for him there. So when the big iron gates swing wide for him on St. Patrick's Day, trusted friends will be waiting to whisk him to a safe and secret destination.

It may interest the "Bugs" Moran gang, and what is left of it after the St. Valentine massacre last year, to know that "Scarface" is coming out of prison in fine physical fettle. And it will interest everybody who does not know him intimately that Capone is leaving behind him scores of admiring friends and they're counted just among the prisoners, either.

Dr. Herbert Goldfarb, for instance, vice-president of the board of trustees of a distinguished surgeon. Penology is a fascinating science to him. He spends much of his time at the prison hospital and in interviewing convicts. "Believe it or not," said the ruddy-faced surgeon, "Capone has not been unhappy here. He has had a chance to indulge himself in a lot of human qualities none of us ever guessed he had. His mind is of the highest type and his nature is kindly."

"He has been a splendid prisoner, and he has done a great deal for the rest of the men," said the ruddy-faced surgeon. "He has lost some surplus weight and a couple of defective tonsils. For an hour and a half, and sometimes half an hour, he has played handball or baseball, and has worked hard at the office job assigned him. He has read a lot of good books, too."

"The board of trustees never refuses an interview with a prisoner who offers a formal complaint. But there has been none from Capone. He shared the lot of the other prisoners and asked no special privileges."

RACKET CHIEFTAIN'S CHARITIES

The racket chieftain had plenty of money in Eastern Penitentiary, where convicts are permitted to carry accounts at the office, but are not allowed to buy luxuries for themselves from outside. Here is the way Capone spent part of his funds, according to a prison official who said:

"At Christmas time, Warden Herbert Smith was tearing around interviewing inmates about their needy families. Capone did some investigating for himself and paid for twenty-five heating baskets of food."

"He heard about a campaign for a new children's hospital and sent $1,000. Thinking about it later, he decided that was not enough and gave $500 more. The University of Pennsylvania organized a charity benefit and, may be for a joke, sent some tickets to Al Capone. He bought 200 of them. "Through the prison chaplain he has sent money to aid poor families outside. One woman with eight children was about to be evicted from her home received $200. He paid another's hospital bills and offered her husband a job! This was declined with thanks, nobody knowing just what the 'job' would be."

"He has helped a lot of the prisoners, too, but they are the only ones who ever say anything about his good turns."

One former convict whose sentence recently expired had a good opportunity to observe the racket king in exile. He said: "This guy who used to throw ten-grand parties in Chicago and twenty-grand funerals for his pals, played a smart game here by taking it on the chin and lying!"

"HE SMILED A LOT"

"This was his first experience in stir, but he sure was a model prisoner. He was almost too cheerful, but we respected him just the same. He smiled a lot, but you felt like he was taking 'himself' pretty seriously, too. "Somebody had nerve enough to ask Scarface if he'd chieled his way into jail on purpose after the big gang 'peace meeting' in Atlantic City. He got none and says, 'they've called me everything in my time but a coward.' "Goin' back?—Yes, he'll go back—when he's ready."

But Al himself said nothing; nothing that is, beyond this succinct and unlightening statement: "Listen, I got nothing to say."

Warden Smith, militaristic but highly-regarded commandant of the penitentiary, did not want to discuss Capone individually. "He's just like any other prisoner here," he said. "The one who behaves gets the breaks."

"My ideas of penology are based on common sense. I'm not interested in a man's past so much as his conduct here. Nobody is shown any favoritism, millionaire or pauper."

"Capone worked hard and observed every rule, and earned his two months off for good behavior."

One of the few traditions mentioned by the new regime at Eastern Penitentiary is that regular cells must be decorated and furnished by the prisoners with the few luxuries obtainable at the prison store.

CELL MATE A FORGER

Capone and his cell-mate, a forger, had no better quarters than scores of other men. Prison-made rag rugs, gaily colored, covered the cold concrete floor and there were a few pictures on the walls. A small table and two comfortable cots comprised the furniture. A cheap radio and a phonograph had been purchased by the prisoners who previously had occupied the cell.

The ace of gangland wrote scores of letters in the evenings—to his wife and relatives and friends. He received many more—beginning letters, threatening letters, friendly letters—almost everything but life insurance prospectives.

Each of these was carefully censored, and prison officials have laughed at the report that he was directing the activities of racketeers. "As a matter of fact," one said, "Capone is not the type who would even be tempted to sign anything over on us. His attorney, Congressman Benjamin M. Golder, tried six times to get him paroled, but Capone never squawked when he failed."

Capone, they say, always looked eagerly for letters from a certain neighboring town. They were written by a quiet, studious-looking youth who bears no resemblance to the racketeer. Who is this kid brother and Scarface is putting him through college.

Royal Oak Site Gaining Support

The Ward Three Sanich Ratepayers' Association met yesterday evening at Gordon Head Hall and agreed that the Sanich high school should be a first-class building, located within a mile of Royal Oak, with grounds of at least eight acres near an arterial highway. Of the large attendance present, none supported location of the school adjacent to the city boundary.

Criticism of the transportation system was voiced and the meeting agreed to co-operate with Ward One in efforts to obtain betterment.

Criticism was voiced of the action of the Council in abolishing the ward foreman system and creating four public works districts without regard to ward boundaries. The new system was declared inferior to that abandoned.

Passenger Travel On Log Railways

Logging railways may carry passengers under conditions laid down in an amendment to the Railways Act presented to the Legislature yesterday by Premier Toimin. Rolling stock and equipment must be approved by the inspector of railways before such permission is granted.

The minister's permission to carry passengers is based on the presumption that the use of the logging railway is advantageous to the development of natural resources, such as minerals, lying along the tract traversed by the railway. Rates and tolls to be charged by the railway will be fixed by contract with the miners or prospectors or others who wish to use the railway for carrying of passengers or goods. Such contracts are to be subject to the minister's approval.

It is understood to be contemplated that in some cases logging railways may ultimately become general railways, if circumstances warrant.

RETAIL SALES OFF IN JANUARY

"January reports on retail sales show a decline of four per cent. from that month a year ago, says the latest sales and credit analysis of The Brookmire Economic Service, Inc., which adds:

"Declines of from two to sixteen per cent. were reported in all districts except New York, Boston and Richmond. Wholesale trade in December was five per cent. below that month in 1929. January shows improvement over December but is running well below January 1929. Carloadings for the week ending February 15 were seven per cent. below the same week of last year."

Man Claims Druggist's Suggestion Saved His Life

"I was all run-down, weak, nervous, discouraged and had no appetite at all. In fact I was very dependent, until my druggist insisted I should try a 30 day treatment of Double Strength Erbae. I followed his advice and it certainly has been a life saver to me. I gladly recommend it to anyone who needs a good tonic and nerve restorer."

The treatment mentioned above has won the highest praise from those who have used it to ward off a feeling of weakness, lack of ambition and vigor, loss of nerve force and signs of approaching age. Put up in tablets, plain, irascible and convenient for home use—Double Strength Erbae comes in sealed packets containing a 30 day supply.

For the convenience and benefit of men and women in this locality, who have never had a chance to try Double Strength Erbae—local druggists have been furnished with the regular 30 day treatment to supply all who wish to try it on a no risk basis. Results in all instances must be completely satisfactory or purchase price will be refunded. (Adv.)

QUAKER OATS

Better Oats—Better Milled for Tempting Breakfasts

China in Every Package

A surprise in every Quaker package marked "China"—a piece of attractively patterned genuine English china. As pretty as you could buy. Beautifully colored... distinctively shaped and bordered.

Quaker... the world's favourite hot breakfast... cooks ready to serve in 2½ minutes. There's no fuss, no bother. You can have savory hot Quaker Oats in less time than it takes to make toast.

The famous Quaker milling process makes Quaker the fastest-cooking of all hot breakfasts. First, Quaker selects only the plump, firm, full-flavored oats... roasts them in open pans to a succulent, flaky tenderness. Then rolls them tissue-thin. Only Quaker Oats are oven-roasted. Only Quaker has that rich, nut-sweet goodness children and grown-ups relish.

Work! Play! 70% of the entire day's work is done in the four morning hours, according to a nation-wide survey of homes, schools, offices and factories. This drain on energy requires a sustaining hot breakfast. That is why authorities universally recommend Quaker Oats.

Contains 16% protein—the "growth element"; 65% carbohydrates—the "energy" food. Abundant body-building minerals and the important vitamins.

Order Quaker Oats today. Your grocer has both the Regular and the Quick Quaker that cooks in 2½ minutes from the time the water boils. Please do not confuse Quick Quaker with ordinary quick oats. Only Quaker can give you the incomparable Quaker flavor and rich nutrition. Large household packages. Never in bulk. All Quaker packages contain coupons with which you can get valuable premiums.

Livestock Costs To Be Investigated

Ottawa, March 12.—Investigation of the cost of producing livestock in Canada and the cause of wide price fluctuations were recommended by the conference of deputy ministers of agriculture, officers of co-operative agencies and producers which ended at a late hour here last night. A proposal for a royal commission to inquire into problems affecting the industry was dropped after prolonged discussion. The conference reaffirmed the confidence of its members in the principles of co-operative marketing. Organization of a committee to consider the problem of handling feeds at cost to eastern livestock areas was recommended.

PLANE PILOT KILLED

Pocatello, Idaho, March 12.—Merrill P. Morgan, thirty, Pocatello student pilot, was killed yesterday evening when the plane he was flying went into a nose dive at an altitude of 1,900 feet and crashed near the airport. The plane burst into flames and the body of Morgan was burned beyond recognition. Morgan, a Canadian aviator studying the World War, was striving to get enough hours in the air to be eligible for a United States transport license.

BOARD IS ASKED TO RECOMMEND DUTY ON YARNS

Tariff Body at Ottawa Hears Plunkett on Behalf of Victoria Mill

Ottawa, March 12.—Restoration of duties on woolen yarns was asked by southern Alberta sheep breeders in an application heard by the Tariff Board yesterday. Since duties were removed in 1928, it was claimed, wool prices had dropped and Canadian breeders had found it hard to market their wool. Manufacturers' representatives attributed declines in wool to world conditions of over-production and not to yarn importation. Most imported yarns were said to be of inferior quality and could not be made in Canada.

D. B. Plunkett, M.P. for Victoria, supported the application. A wool industry had been established in Victoria for yarn making, its bonds guaranteed by the city, he said. Foreign competition threatened the life of the industry and the city was likely to be called on to make good its guarantee.

The Victoria plant had sold yarns to a Vancouver company, but since removal of the duty, that firm had been buying yarns from Bradford, England, he said. Objection to free importation of yarns also was voiced by the Paton Company of Sherbrooke, Que. Owing to the removal of the duty on yarns, it had been forced to lay off 150 men in its spinning department and buy imported yarns, it was stated.

LOUIS M. AUGER TO STAND TRIAL

Ottawa, March 12.—Louis M. Auger, ex-member of Parliament, was formally committed in court here today to stand trial on a charge of perjury. The charge grows out of personal evidence given at his recent trial on the count of criminally assaulting Miss Laurence of Haverbury, Ont., of which Auger was acquitted.

Prairie Mail Pilot Has Narrow Escape

Regina, March 12.—Pilot Con Farrell narrowly missed death at the Regina municipal airport yesterday when his huge Fokker, F-14, turned turtle when a sharp crosswind struck him as he was landing after an unsuccessful attempt to fly mail to Saskatoon and Edmonton.

Pilot Farrell escaped any injury because the high monoplane wing and the rudder kept the fuselage some two feet off the ground, enabling him to slip from under unscathed. The plane was damaged considerably.

The aviator had taken off in a sixty-five-mile-an-hour wind and after halting half an hour had been forced to return to the Regina field in a snowstorm.

HOMESTEAD RUSH

Prince Albert, Sask., March 12.—The first land rush of the season took place yesterday when twenty-two homestead entries and twenty-one soldier grants were received before the noon hour at the Dominion lands office here. Most of the applicants were returned men who had waited outside the entrance all night in a drizzle, snow and rain to submit their applications. The applicants hailed from both northern and southern Saskatchewan, and one individual came from Seattle.

TRIBUTES PAID TO MEMORY OF PILOT BARKER

Sir Arthur Currie and Col. Bishop Speak of Achievements of Canadian Ace

Montreal, March 12.—"I was terribly sorry to read of Col. Barker's death," said General Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of McGill University and wartime commander of the Canadian overseas forces, in commenting on the aeroplane crash near Ottawa yesterday afternoon in which Col. W. G. Barker, V.C., died. "He was one of the most outstanding of that group of super-men who served so conspicuously in the war in the Royal Flying Corps."

"I am sure his courage and resourcefulness will prove an inspiration to all young Canadians," Sir Arthur continued. "He died as he would have wished to die—in that realm in which he reigned supreme. His name will live forever in the annals of the country which he served so nobly."

TRIBUTE FROM BISHOP

London, March 12.—When Colonel W. A. Bishop, V.C., Canada's first ranking wartime ace, was told by the Canadian Press of the death of Colonel W. G. Barker, V.C., yesterday in an aeroplane crash near Ottawa, he was completely overcome. "It is a most terrible shock to me," said Colonel Bishop. "He was one of my dearest friends and one of the finest men I have ever met. There has been no bigger man in the air business either during the war or since. I really cannot express what I feel."

Though Colonel Bishop's grief for his comrade-in-arms left him almost speechless there are many here, their connection with aviation going back to the war period, who remember Barker and his exploits vividly and spoke of them to-day.

Six months after the war ended, Col. Barker, who had just before disabled an arm, took the Prince of Wales on a flight over London, though few of the thousands who saw them knew the identity of the pilot or his passenger. Barker flew with his disabled arm strapped to his breast.

SECOND GAP IN RANKS

Toronto, March 12.—The tragic death of Col. W. G. Barker, V.C., in a plane crash near Ottawa yesterday afternoon was the second fatal accident to befall a Canadian winner of the Victoria Cross since the Empire re-union of V.C. winners under the auspices of the British Empire Service League in London last November 11. Captain G. F. (Bobby) Kerr, V.C., of Toronto, was asphyxiated by carbon monoxide fumes in the garage of his home in Toronto a few days after his return from London.

LIQUOR BILING ASKED

Washington, March 12.—Whether the purchaser of illicit liquor is guilty of a crime under the prohibition law was laid before the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday for determination. Citing the diversity of opinion expressed among judges as to the legal culpability of the liquor buyers, the Department of Justice appealed to the highest tribunal against the decision of Federal Judge Morton at Boston holding Congress expressly excluded the purchasers from the penal provisions of the act.

BRITISH ARMY ESTIMATES SHOW REDUCED TOTAL

Canadian Press
London, March 12.—The British army estimates, announced yesterday, showing a decrease of $3,000,000, provide for the excess cost of the employment of additional troops in China, which in former years has been met in the supplementary estimates, states Rt. Hon. Thomas Shaw, War Minister, in an explanatory memorandum.

Other new features of the estimates, which total $202,500,000, are the loss of receipts in connection with the occupation of the Rhine amounting to $4,750,000; and a contribution of $750,000 from the Government of Egypt toward the cost of maintaining British troops in Egypt, owing to the initiation of negotiations for a new Anglo-Egyptian treaty.

Beginning the current financial year, the strength of the British army, including British troops in India, will be approximately 10,000 below the established strength. The shortage is almost entirely taken up in the infantry at home, due to abnormal outflow in the last two years and the small intake of recruits, who numbered only 28,000 in 1929, compared with 30,000 the year before. It is estimated 28,500 recruits will be taken in during 1930.

The strength of the army reserve will be approximately 125,000, rising to 132,000 during the year, but declining to 129,000 next year.

A GALLANT AIRMAN

TO THE ROLL OF HONOR UPON which the names of the world's most brilliant airmen in the war have been inscribed now must be added that of Colonel W. G. Barker, V.C., one of the young Canadians whose heroic exploits in more than one battle air during the Great War attracted international attention.

Although two other Canadians had more enemy machines to their credit—Bishop with seventy-two and Collishaw with sixty—Barker's record was unique in many ways. The achievement which brought him his well-earned Victoria Cross was a fight with a host of hostile machines—one against thirty over the enemy lines. Although wounded in both thighs, with a shattered elbow, twice momentarily insensible to what was going on in the air around him, he fought his way to the British lines—but not before five of the great ring of adversaries, from which nobody thought he would escape, had been sent to earth. He crashed in safety and lived, despite his terrible ordeal and grievous wounds.

It is tragically ironic that one who had had such a spectacular and distinguished career, and encountered untold dangers, should end it all amid the peaceful surroundings of familiar Canadian scenes while testing a new type of airplane. It recalls the unspectacular end of Sir John Alcock and others who have added much to aeronautical knowledge since the end of the war. Collishaw and Bishop of Canada's outstanding "aces" remain. Bishop has gone into business in Great Britain; Collishaw is still in the Royal Air Force, and perhaps may claim the world's record for sustained service in the air—from 1915 continuously.

Airmen the world over, especially those whom he leaves behind in Canada, will regret the untimely death of Colonel Barker, while Canada deplors the loss of a distinguished son.

GO AFTER IT

IF THE PEOPLE OF VICTORIA REALLY want the government to complete the West Coast Road—which the late government began—if they really want the business which would flow to this city from the development of the territory the highway would serve, they will have to concentrate upon it and work for it with every means they possess.

Eight million dollars are to be spent on roads in British Columbia this year. A large part of this construction, most of which will be in the interior of the province, will be financed by revenue derived from Vancouver Island. As we have pointed out several times, the motor license and gasoline taxation contributed by Vancouver Island is sufficient to finance all the Island's road requirements—on the west and east coasts as well as in the central districts—but very little of it actually is expended here in that way. And the revenue from this source will be nearly doubled by the increased taxation which is to go into effect shortly.

The late government began the construction of the Ocean Highway, and operations were going on beyond Jordan River when the change of administration took place. During the election campaign Dr. Tolmie, Mr. Pooley and the candidates for the city promised that this project would be completed if their party were elected. The Times believes these pledges were given in all sincerity, but it is essential that they should have adequate outside support.

Mr. Hayward and Mr. Beatty emphasized the urgency of action on this work when they spoke on the budget the other afternoon. They are doing their part for the community in this regard; our citizens ought to be sufficiently interested in their own welfare to get behind them. If Victoria wants to develop in every way on an impressive scale, here is one practical way of bringing it about. If, instead, we prefer to chase rainbows, or indulge in pipe dreams, we will let this project lapse and allow our motor car and gasoline taxes to be used in building highways three or four hundred miles away.

CAPTAIN MACKENZIE AND FINANCE

CAPTAIN IAN MACKENZIE'S SPEECH in the Legislature in support of his lack of confidence amendment to the budget was another reminder of how far the present government has wandered from the promises upon which it attained office. It is clear from the Vancouver member's searching analysis of Mr. Shelly's financing that the ministry's borrowing policy is meant largely to cover up its own shortcomings during the eighteen months it has been in charge of the affairs of the province.

No less a shortage than $600,000 in next year's estimates was claimed by Captain Mackenzie. The point which the Vancouver member raised in regard to the government's mania for borrowing, however, should be noted by the taxpayers. Under the unexpired loan legislation, it has the authority to borrow $9,000,000, while the present bill asks for power to borrow nearly $15,000,000, making $24,000,000 altogether. Of the new amount, we are told that $9,740,000 will be used for constructive purposes, while $5,041,000 will be applied to wipe out what the government considers to be the deficits of the late administration. This, however, is not all. The expenditure next year will be $3,000,000 greater than it was this year. All this means fresh taxation.

In regard to the gasoline tax and motor licenses, it should be noted that in future the government does not propose to earmark the revenue it collects from these sources for highway purposes; it proposes to put it into the Consolidated Revenue Fund—the common till into which all provincial revenues are poured. The implication in this policy naturally is that the government will draw upon that fund without the public knowing that revenue which should be set aside for roads has been invaded for other purposes. This policy is a very ingenious method of making spending public funds a good deal easier. The late government was charged with a disease its critics called "spendthrift zeal." It was a piker compared with the present administration.

GANDHI LAUNCHES HIS PLAN

AS FAR AS THE LAYMAN UNDER- stood the circumstances, India was put on a period of probation ten years ago, and given an opportunity to show her qualifications for self-government. Last year the British government appointed the Simon Commission to find out how the country had progressed in the meantime. It went to India twice, got some, but not much, co-operation from the leaders of native political thought, and its report is expected to be made public within a few days.

While speculation of what the report will recommend is going on, Mahatma Gandhi is leading a group of irreconcilables whose principal objective is complete independence from Great Britain. It is proposed that this demonstration shall be conducted without violence and that it shall lead up to a nationwide policy of what is known as "civil disobedience." Carried out according to Gandhi's plan, it will mean the non-payment of taxes and abstention from every form of co-operation with the government of India—a policy, no matter how carefully Mr. Gandhi may make his arrangements, which is very likely to lead to violence of a more or less serious character.

One of the tragic features of his campaign is the undisputed fact that Gandhi is an honest man, and, as Mr. C. F. Andrews wrote in his book, "Mahatma Gandhi's Ideas," his complete sincerity and self-abnegation no one doubts. He describes him as one of those rare beings who actually practices in his own life the lessons of the Sermon on the Mount. "His saintly character," we read further, "no doubt is a large part of the secret of his spiritual hold on the Indian masses," which, Mr. Andrews declares, is firmer than ever—now an obvious fact.

Forty years ago Gandhi was a law student in London and considered brilliant at his studies. Today he is an old man at sixty-one, bearing the physical evidences of a being torn by the conviction that his native country is being wronged, and that he alone can turn her, as he believes she may be turned, into a land of milk and honey "if no single article of commerce were brought in from the outside."

The seriousness of the situation as far as it involves Great Britain needs no emphasis. It faces the world are on the present government as it eyes this grave problem. Some relief in the tension is expected from the publication of the report of the Simon Commission. There is no question, however, that—as General Smuts reminded an audience at Ottawa a few weeks ago—in the process of time the same policy will be applied to the Indian problem as was applied to the Dominions, and it may be, as the South African statesman predicted, that when the history of this solution comes to be written, the Indian Empire "would be regarded as the British Empire's most glorious achievement."

All parties in Great Britain, of course, realize that self-government in India is inevitable; but the problem of the moment is how to reconcile the demands from India, one for complete independence and the other, less articulate, for Dominion status at once, with the intention of Britain to resist the first and meet the second by a much slower process than would appear to suit the temper of India's malcontents.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

PROVINCIAL HEALTH

La Presse

The provincial government proposes to reduce the charges which the municipalities will have to meet in the organization of health districts. This would be the best way, one would think, of encouraging our rural populations to put more and more store on establishments of this kind, whose utility has already been proved.

BRITISH MILLERS AND CANADIAN WHEAT

The Ottawa Press

Sir William Clarke's denial that certain British organizations are boycotting Canadian wheat must be taken at its nominal value, but there could not have been so much smoke without the flames constituting some sort of conflagration. If the organizations mentioned by the High Commissioner are honest in their declarations, it may well be that there are other organizations which deserve the reproaches contained in the rumors which they have done their best to extinguish.

CANADIAN DIMES

Letters in Toronto Globe

Last evening I tuned in on Collier's Hour, and after John B. Kennedy, editor, had his say, Mollie told her uncle how she met her future husband. It all came about while she was riding on the top layer of a Fifth Avenue bus. The conductor refused a Canadian dime fare—no good—terrible fuss, and all that.

I wonder how many "worthless Canadian dimes" Collier's accepts weekly in Canada for Collier's magazines, and if they are thrown back at the prospective purchaser.

Possibly Canadians had no business listening to its radio ad. and, in that case, have no business buying what it advertises.

RADIO ADVERTISING PROSPECTS

United Farmers of Canada (Saskatchewan) in The Western Producer

We have known many respectable journals aiding and abetting the defrauding of the public by publishing advertisements about fake cures for cancer, tuberculosis, rheumatism, etc. We have known respectable journals publishing lying advertisements of all sorts written not only by illiterate crooks, but also advertisements composed by brilliant publicists to wheedle the hard-earned coppers out of the pockets of the poor.

We have known respectable journals publishing fake testimonials from well-known public people, about cigarettes, face powder, tooth paste and a hundred and one other articles which these public people knew nothing about but for which they were paid a considerable sum of money by corporations which buy the right to use their names in this fraudulent way.

If the radio is left in the hands of private organizations, there is little doubt but that in twenty-five or thirty years, it would be used in a similar manner by advertisers of all kinds.

A THOUGHT

Let your moderation be known unto all men.—Philippians iv 5.

A thing moderately good is not so good as it ought to be. Moderation in temper is always a virtue; but moderation in principle is always a vice.—Thomas Paine.

Across the Bay

It is a dull day and full of business, Mr. Hayward affords the private bills committee. Mr. Barker, who is to be a politician, gets what he wants and Mr. Pattullo sees an outrage perpetrated.

By H. B. W.

THE BUDGET debate over, the flow of oratory thoroughly dammed, and everyone hoping to get home a week from Saturday, the House, under these ideal conditions, marched breast forward on Wednesday and found itself by dinner time well on the way.

THE HOUSE, of course, is never so dull as when it is entirely respectable, never so boring as when it is rendering best service to the state. Well, it was so entirely respectable and rendered such good service on Wednesday that it bored everyone to tears. This column inevitably will prove as dull as the House and probably would be much better left unwritten. There wasn't even an evening session to liven things up after a good dinner, for the all-powerful Conservative caucus had its mysterious business affair which will presently appear in the form of legislation. Altogether, for the people of the Province it was an excellent day. For observers of this sort it was a total loss.

MOST of the afternoon was devoted to the private business of Victoria and Vancouver. The private business of Victoria, or rather of Oak Bay, revolved around a merry fight which the municipality has been waging with the B.C. Electric Railway Company over bus transportation. The merits of this case need not bother us here, but the unhappy writhings of the private bills committee were worthy of note. The unhappy private bills committee, indeed, spent a miserable day in every way and felt that its feelings had been grossly abused.

IN THE first place, it must be understood that the private bills committee favored the B.C. Electric against the authorities of Oak Bay. But no room had the House heard about the matter from Mr. Reginald Hayward of Victoria, who lives in Oak Bay, than it told the private bills committee in parliamentary language to guess again. The private bills committee, of course, didn't like this, and Mr. Davis, its much-enduring chairman, protested vehemently that he did not propose to be made the "creature of politics," a most impressive phrase which startled but did not edify.

HE ALSO made the rather provocative announcement that "disgraceful lobbying had surrounded the Oak Bay fight from the start. To this Mr. Pattullo raised instant objection and demanded whether anything improper was alleged. Apparently it was only disgraced and not improper, and so the matter dropped. But the Oak Bay legislation went back to the private bills committee, which, as Mr. Jau Mackenzie vainly insisted, was tantamount to a vote of lack of confidence in the committee. Laboring under this shadow, the committee will ponder once more.

FROM VICTORIA the House went to Vancouver, and quickly disposed of all Vancouver's business to the satisfaction of everyone on the subject. Mr. Kirk pulled the Vancouver Incorporation Act amendments with admirable seamanship and with the help of Barney Williams, Vancouver's all-knowing and universally-liked city solicitor, at his elbow. Together they had no trouble in convincing the House that almost everything that Vancouver wanted was quite all right. Again, however, the private bills committee was politely spanked.

THE PRIVATE bills committee, it will be recalled, gave Vancouver blanket power to license liquor export houses among other things after learned legal members had assured it that these establishments would not be and could not be put out of business, as reported in the newspapers. The House thought differently, decided that nothing should be done to assist the exporters in any way, and remanded the private bills committee's handwork. It allowed Vancouver the right to license exporters only so long as the Federal and Provincial Governments permitted them to exist. The revenue which the city will get from such sources before the export houses close next June will not be sufficient to reduce the tax rate.

IN THE same way the House reversed the private bills committee's judgment on the affairs of the Vancouver General Hospital. The committee had rejected a plan to allow Vancouver to pay off the hospital's debts over a period of four years. After listening to an excellent speech on the subject from Mr. Walkers, the House listened also to Mr. Mackenzie's protest on principle, and promptly reinstated the necessary borrowing powers. No one asked for a recorded vote on these things, and so far as anyone could distinguish only Mr. Mackenzie voted in the negative.

AFTER THAT Mr. Kirk had no trouble. Waving his eyeglasses and their broad black ribbon, he expounded the Vancouver Act so easily and so rapidly, his words melting into each other in a ceaseless flow of argument, that its passage was soon accomplished.

THESE UPON the government brought down its legislation transferring the railway lands from the Dominion to the Province, and this rather historical moment passed with little comment, except some faint applause from the Conservative benches. Provided there is no slapstick the cup and the lip, the railway lands should be ours before midsummer.

THE ONLY fire of the day was kindled late and did not burn long. It was provoked by the government's bill allowing it to pay increased salaries of civil servants, to be arranged during the year, out of consolidated revenue. This seemed innocent enough on the surface, but the opposition found that it was likely to create all kinds of unpleasantness. Mr. Pattullo and his rabid. It was ruthless, cruel, partisan, wholly subversive of good government. Mr. Mackenzie found it wasteful, spendthrift, hopelessly extravagant, true to the traditions of Toryism.

AS A LAST desperate resort Mr. Pattullo called upon the young Conservative members of the House to rise in their might and stop the government's mad career. Strangely enough, not one arose, and as the clock had long since registered dinner time, the outrage, as Mr. Pattullo had feared, was perpetrated, and the government's appetite appeared to be none the worse for it.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

The Victoria Daily Times, March 13, 1905

Robert Marpole, general superintendent of the Western Division of the C.P.R., arrived in the city last evening, and it is expected that his visit will be followed by the early announcement of the award of the contract for the tourist hotel superstructure. He confirmed the statement in The Times that the award would be made this week, and intimated that this would be done after a consultation with Mr. Rattenbury, the architect.

Weather Forecast—Victoria and Vicinity—Northerly and easterly winds, fair to-day, becoming unsettled to-night or Tuesday.

The Victoria United team is out of the running for the British Columbia football championship. As a result of Saturday's game with the Carleton Place eleven at Oak Bay Park, the Victorians have lost the opportunity to regain the lead secured by the soldiers. The game ended in a two-all draw.

A return match was played between the J.B.A.A. and Tacoma basketball teams on Saturday evening at the latter city. It resulted in a victory for the Tacoma team to the final score of 59-26 points. The hall was crowded and a splendid exhibition of combination and accurate shooting was given by the victors.

The annual meeting of the Central Lacrosse Club was held last evening at 8 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. rooms. The club intends organizing intermediate and junior teams to enter the local leagues.

Woman Hunter Claims Bounty For Wolf Pelt
Pembroke, Ont., March 12.—A modern follower of Diana the Huntress, Mrs. Sarah Benoit, yesterday visited the office of the county treasurer and claimed the bounty for the pelt of a wolf. Mrs. Benoit trapped the animal herself, fifty miles from her home at Mackay's station, loaded it on a toboggan and skinned it. The first woman to claim the bounty in this district is twenty-six, tall, and weighs only 115 pounds.

Woman Hunter Claims Bounty For Wolf Pelt
Pembroke, Ont., March 12.—A modern follower of Diana the Huntress, Mrs. Sarah Benoit, yesterday visited the office of the county treasurer and claimed the bounty for the pelt of a wolf. Mrs. Benoit trapped the animal herself, fifty miles from her home at Mackay's station, loaded it on a toboggan and skinned it. The first woman to claim the bounty in this district is twenty-six, tall, and weighs only 115 pounds.

WOMEN BEHIND PROHIBITION, U.S. COMMITTEE TOLD

Washington, March 13.—Two dozen women leaders who said they represented 12,000,000 of their sex throughout the country yesterday maintained the womanhood of the United States stood four-square behind prohibition.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of Beverly, Mass., chairman of the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement, they succeeded in presenting a joint statement before the House judiciary committee in opposition to repeal before a single question could be asked by members of the committee.

In rapid succession the women were rushed on to the witness stand by Mrs. Peabody, who limited their time, curbed the applause of enthusiastic dyes in the crowded committee room and combated every attempt at interference or delay.

TURKEY FEATHERS MADE HER COAT

Forty turkeys lost their plumage when Mrs. Endre O. Johnson, above, of McVie, N.D., made herself a coat. Pasted on strips of cloth sewed to a summer coat, the feathers made a unique garment. To wear it, she must stand: to sit would break the feathers.

B.C. DAUGHTERS VERY ACTIVE

Post No. 3 Sends Donations to Jubilee and St. Joseph's Appeals

Post No. 3, Native Daughters of British Columbia, held their regular business meeting on Tuesday evening at the Alexandra Club, with the chief factor, Mrs. S. J. Sapledon, in the chair. A report of the recent bridge party, which was so successful financially and socially, was received, and a hearty vote of thanks passed to the conveners, Mrs. C. B. McDonald, Miss A. Mason, Mrs. T. P. Waters and Mrs. W. Champion.

A letter was read from the secretary at Government House thanking the post for flowers and good wishes sent to Miss Helen Mackenzie, and expressing the hope that she would be back in Victoria in the not too distant future.

The post voted a sum of money towards the amount to be raised by the Jubilee Hospital at the tag day, April 5, and a cheque is being sent as a contribution towards the linen shower to be held at St. Joseph's Hospital. The members showed their interest in historical events by asking the chief factor and one other member to represent them at the forthcoming tea to be given by the Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., at the Empress Hotel on Friday, March 15, 1930. Several members signified their intention of attending.

The report of the Local Council of Women indicated the statement that Mrs. Stapledon was elected to take charge of publications. An interesting social event is being planned by the post; Mrs. W. Kinsman has kindly offered her home, 427 Linden Avenue, as a ballroom for the post to give on the first Saturday in April. Mrs. T. P. Waters is arranging a programme for the afternoon, and the refreshments will be at the capable hands of Mrs. J. A. Lorimer.

Nomination papers were filled out in readiness for the annual meeting to be held this coming Tuesday in April. The next meeting of the post will be of a social nature on March 23.

School Board Pays Tribute to Late Miss L. de W. Moore

Great regret was expressed by the City School Board yesterday evening at the passing of Miss Louise Allison de Wolf Moore, former head of the typewriting classes in the commercial department of the Victoria High School. Trustee George Jay, chairman of the board, said the loss sustained by the school, and joined in the general expression of sympathy with the relatives.

That this board learns with great regret the passing of Miss Louise Allison de Wolf Moore, whose services at the Victoria High School have been continuous since February, 1918. She proved herself a highly competent instructor, being at the same time devoted to her duties, to the musical and other activities of the school. She has endeared herself to pupils and teachers, and will be missed greatly by all whose privilege it was to know her.

Wilkinson Road W.M.S.—The regular monthly meeting of the Wilkinson Road W.M.S. was held Tuesday at the Original Home on Cormorant Street, with Mrs. W. Allison in the chair. Mrs. Hood, president of the Sherwood auxiliary, took the Scripture lesson and gave a very inspiring talk. Mrs. G. Jones reported on strangers' work and Mrs. Scott's temperance. The address was given by Rev. J. Post on the Indian missions in B.C. He told many personal experiences, and his talk was much enjoyed. During the afternoon Miss Maud Trevor sang "The Master's Call." At the close of the meeting tea was served by Miss Martin and helpers from the Home, and a social half hour was spent.

Cymrodorion Society—The March meeting of the Victoria Cymrodorion Society will be held on Friday evening in St. David's Hall, 1414 Douglas Street. As this is the first regular meeting of the society's twenty-second year, it is to be hoped that a good attendance will result. A programme will be given and refreshments served.

Chiropractic Principles

Thinking people want to know the "why" of things; they need reasons and explanations to support statements of fact. It is difficult to explain a system of healing in a few words. Perhaps the best way to explain CHIROPRACTIC is to present the five cardinal principles, interpreted in common sense fashion, which include all the essential theory of CHIROPRACTIC. The five CHIROPRACTIC principles are:
No. 1 The cause of disease is within the body.
No. 2 The most important cause of disease is interference with the nerve action.
No. 3 The most common cause of interference with nerves is vertebral displacement.
No. 4 Spinal displacements can be adjusted by hand, the CHIROPRACTIC way.
No. 5 NATURE CURES—the CHIROPRACTOR accepts these principles, as absolute and sufficient.

In Agony With Severe Case of Eczema. Healed by Cuticura.

"My father had a very severe case of eczema. His hands, neck, and different parts of his body were affected with it. It started in blisters and itched terribly. At times he was in agony and could not sleep nights. He suffered about six months with it.
"He tried different remedies but none of them seemed to help the trouble. Finally he tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after six months' treatment he was completely healed." (Signed) Bert T. Carroll, Lornevale, Nova Scotia.

MALE CHOIR HOLDS DINNER

Plans For Year Are Outlined at Gathering in Dominion Hotel

Members of the Victoria Male Choir gathered at the Dominion Hotel Monday night for an informal dinner. The event was to enable members of the choir to become better acquainted. The president, Tom Scott, was in the chair, and he outlined the doings of the choir since its formation for the first Victoria musical festival.

Frank Tupman, the choir leader, spoke of his plans for the development of the choir, which, he hoped, would become of increasing value to the community.

Appreciative references to the spirit of comradeship pervading the choir were made by Messrs. Burns, Wharton and Routley. Solos were given by Messrs. Humphries, Woods, C. O'Neil, C. H. Simpson and Llewellyn.

Carne Rebekah Lodge—The regular meeting of Carne Rebekah Lodge No. 45 will be held in the Odd Fellows Hall, Douglas street, to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. After the business of the lodge has been disposed of, progressive bridge will be played by the members and their friends at 9 o'clock. Players kindly bring their own cards and tallies. After the game refreshments will be served in the dining-room. Reservation may be made at 4262R.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By FRANK MEYER ELDER

Mrs. Elder will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

ARE YOU GIVING YOUR HOPEFUL TOO MUCH ATTENTION

So many letters from readers say: "I have been on the point of writing you many times, and then I picked up the paper and saw the answer to my question." Each looks upon this as peculiarly uncanny. But it is no more so than my common experience, which is to have half a dozen letters with identical questions pop out of one mail. Sometimes the words are so similar that one is amazed. One shouldn't be, for the answer to these experiences is that children everywhere are very much alike. Reared in similar environments, they react similarly and similar problems result.

To-day's stock of letters is from mothers whose babies can't bear their out of sight. More than likely, each mother has had the sole care of her baby for many months. She may be the type (I read between the lines) who says when baby cries, "I'll go to him. He'll probably fuss if he sees a stranger." With such unselfish service the natural result is the following problem:

"How can I break my baby of screaming the minute I get out of sight? He is eight months old, weighs twenty-two pounds, has no night feedings and is a perfectly healthy, normal baby."

"When I step from the room he starts crying. If I am gone more than a

Funeral Held In Vancouver Of Mrs. Morte Craig

Vancouver, March 13.—The Klondike days of '98 were recalled yesterday when last rites for Mrs. Nellie Nye Craig, who witnessed the gold rush at its height, were held at 10 a.m. in Center & Hanna's chapel. Mrs. Craig died recently at St. Joseph's, while visiting her former home there. She was accompanied on the trip east by her daughter, Mrs. D. D. McTavish, of Victoria.

Rev. C. C. Owen conducted the service before a large number of friends and pioneers. The body was cremated. The late Mrs. Craig, who went to the Yukon with her husband, Morte H. Craig, had resided in Prince Rupert for the past twenty years. Her husband and daughter are the only surviving relatives.

Keating

The weekly meeting of the South Saanich Young People's Club was held in the clubroom on Monday evening. Mrs. W. Dale presided and Roy Heyer led devotion. A report of the Young People's Conference in Vancouver was given by Mr. Heyer. The Keating team to debate with the Sidney Young People will consist of Misses Sadie Paterson, Bertha Snider and Fred Sawyer. The meeting scheduled for Monday evening, March 17, was cancelled owing to the St. Patrick's tea and sale of work to be held by the ladies aid in the church on that day from 3 to 5 o'clock. A concert will be given in the evening and Roy Dr. Wilson of the First United Church, will give an address.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald New (nee Eva Ambrose) of Vancouver, are visitors at the home of Mrs. New's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose, 6115 Commercial.

Eating Wrong Type of Food Can Cause Attack of Eczema

By DR. MORRIS FISHER

In the last quarter of a century cases of eczema have been much better defined than they were before. At one time any inflammation of the skin that was associated with swelling and redness and the exudation of fluid was called eczema. Now, it is realized that eczema is a condition of the skin with the symptoms that have been mentioned, but which follows a definite course and which is associated with a special reaction on the part of the skin to certain irritant or exciting agents.

Among the external irritants which may bring about the reactions of eczematous character are such chemicals as frequently formaldehyde and turpentine, the dyes which are used to stain fur and hair, vegetable irritants such as poison ivy, primrose and mustard. Sometimes the rays of the sun produce eczematous reactions in the skin of certain people.

The specialist in disease of the skin is likely to separate the condition which follows a definite course and which is known as eczema from an ordinary inflammation of the skin brought about by irritating substances and which is called dermatitis. Any inflammation of the skin is dermatitis. Usually infection occurs in combination with the inflammation and determines the situation.

Sometimes people who are sensitive to certain food substances react with eczema on the skin; in other instances, they react with the type of eruption that is called urticaria and which consists of itching, blister-like hives. Babies may be sensitive to wheat, to

Chases Dirt—Protects the Home

Made in Canada

Sister Mary's Kitchen

By SISTER MARY

A meat loaf often solves the problem of meat for two meals. It can be used hot for dinner the day it is made and cold for luncheon the next day. Cheap cuts can be utilized if they are carefully trimmed and finely chopped.

The menu for the day is planned for a family with children who hurry home from school for luncheon. Since the man of the house is not at home at noon time, the main meal of the day is served in the evening. Economy and well balanced, nourishing menus are given first consideration.

Breakfast—Sections of grapefruit, cereal, cream, creamed fish on toast, corn bread, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—New carrots, soup, croissants, lettuce and cottage cheese sandwiches, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Roast meat loaf, potatoes in cream, best greens, banana and peanut salad, eggless steamed pudding, milk, coffee.

NEW CARROT SOUP

One bunch new carrots, 1 small onion, 2 cups white stock, 1½ cups milk, ½ cup cream, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, paprika.

Wash carrots through several waters, scrubbing thoroughly. Cut in thin slices. Peel and mince onion. Melt butter in soup kettle, add onion and cook over a slow fire for five minutes. Add carrots and stock and simmer until carrots are tender. It will take about thirty minutes. Rub through a coarse sieve and return to the fire with salt and milk and bring to the boiling point but do not let boil. Beat eggs with cream and stir into hot soup. Heat to make very hot but do not let boil. Sprinkle with paprika and serve.

Shelling Paper

Bathroom paper can be made doubly attractive and long lived by shelling it when new. Use clear shellac and let dry thoroughly before you steam it up with hot water.

Long Gloves

For spring evenings, one should wear at least twelve button length gloves to formal parties. With suits the pull-on of shorter length is good.

Trail Wins Way to Western Allan Cup Hockey Semi-finals

THE SPORTS MIRROR

THOUSANDS of bowlers from every part of the North American continent will soon be engaged in the annual monster tournament of the American Bowling Congress at Cleveland, Ohio. This tournament, which is the thirtieth annual, will start shortly and continue until early in April, and will witness something over 12,000 bowlers competing for $100,000 and different medals. They number 2,445 five-man teams who paid a total of $161,210 in entry fees for the privilege of participating in the "ABC's."

A six-day bike race alongside of the "ABC" marathon would seem as brief as a mere "how-de-do" in comparison with a season with an insurance salesman. The tourney prolongs its activity over twenty days, morning till late at night, Sundays and holidays included. A man who dabbles in statistics comes forth with the information that 1,750,000 mineralite balls, weighing 28,000,000 pounds will thunder over the drives before the contest closes. The same concludes that since each ball travels 145 feet from foul line to pit and back again, the total distance traveled by the balls will reach more than 48,000 miles, or far enough to circle the earth twice.

The bowlers who roll up 600, 700 and 800 scores on their home alleys will find the surroundings strange and the conditions exacting at the "ABC" tournament. The alleys are the smoothest and most finely finished that competent hands can make them and the pins are new and stubbornly resist the thumps of the mineralite. Perfect scores of 300 pins have been recorded but twice in "ABC" competition.

Thirteen years after the first tournament of the American Bowling Congress, Billy Knox tossed twelve balls straight, into the "1-3" pocket for a perfect score. That occurred in 1913 in Toledo. Thirteen years after that, in 1926, and again in Toledo, Charlie Reindle of Racine, Wis., notched the second 300 score.

In order to hold the tournament at Cleveland thirty-two brand new alleys were laid, score boards and lighting systems installed and pin boys, four men and scorers, necessitating a force of several hundred men. For the first time in the history of the event, pin-setting machines are being employed to place the maple pins on the alleys. In previous years the pin boys' labors included that particular detail. Following are the "ABC" all-time records: Five-man event—Milwaukee Tea Shops, 3,199 pins, 1927 doubles; H. Thomas-C. Thomas, Chicago, 1,380 pins, 1924; singles, Harry E. Smyers, Pittsburgh, 749, 1924, and all events, Billy Knox, Philadelphia, 2,019 pins, 1923.

Latest reports state Primo Carnera, the man mountain from Italy, will make a tour of the Pacific Coast and may possibly appear in Victoria. It is to be hoped that the giant Italian will be put up against opponents capable of extending his career. He will hardly be giving the public his money's worth if Carnera is pitted against the same kind of "palukas" that he has been meeting during the course of his trip across the United States. Carnera has scored nine knockout victories, but not a single one of his opponents has been a heavyweight of any prominence and the majority of them have been outwitted sixty to seventy pounds.

Usually in a basketball game the scores are fairly large but down in Houston, Texas, they play in a manner that the scores bespeak of baseball games. Two prep school teams engaged in a crucial contest to determine a championship and the final score was 6-4. Yes, sir, one team was lap-sided, however, in comparison to one played two nights later at De Ridder, La., between two teams battling for the central Louisiana championship. That score was 2-1.

Peart Gains Lead In Billiard Final

Montreal, March 13.—A comfortable margin of 367 points over his opponent was obtained by Albert Peart yesterday in the opening play of the finals of the Dominion amateur English billiards championship. His opponent is H. Atwell of Fort William, Western Canadian amateur champion. Peart's best was sixty, and the utmost Atwell could do was forty-eight.

Calgary Canucks Flash Real Form To Beat Ex-Kings

Alberta Junior Hockey Champions Score 2-1 Victory Over British Columbia Titleholders in First Game of Play-offs at Vancouver; Calgary Topheavy Favorites to Win Series and Are Expected to Go Long Way in Memorial Cup Series; Second Game on Friday.

Canadian Press
Vancouver, March 13.—On the strength of their showing in the first contest of the two-game series between the British Columbia and Alberta champions in the Canadian junior hockey championship play-offs, Calgary Canadians should go far in the Dominion title hunt. Although they only managed to eke out a 2-1 victory over the Ex-King George sextette of Vancouver here yesterday evening, the visiting Canucks showed enough hockey ability to stamp them as real championship contenders. As a result of their victory the Albertans will enter the second game of the series Friday night with a one-goal advantage and highly-favored to win the series and the right to meet the Saskatchewan champions in the next round of the O.H.A. Memorial Cup series.

Easter Hero Is Lame After His Win in Gold Cup

Cheltenham, Eng., March 13.—J. H. Whitney's steeplechaser Easter Hero was found to be lame after winning the Gold Cup here yesterday, and it is extremely doubtful if he will be able to compete in the Grand National in which he has been a favorite.

CANADIENS ARE STRONG CONTENDERS

"Flying Frenchmen" Will Be Hard Team to Beat in Stanley Cup Series

Speed Kings Are a Bit Slower But There Is Still Strength in Line-up

Toronto, March 13.—La Club de Hockey Canadien of Montreal three times winner of the Stanley Cup, has a reputation almost as long as its official name for being right in the thick of the battle for the world's championship. With the end of the season less than a week away, it is not yet certain where the Canadiens will finish in the Canadian Division, but one sure thing is that they will be hard to eliminate from the play-offs.

The "Flying Frenchmen" have fallen off a trifle in their speed this season, but they have made up for it by being right in the thick of the battle for the world's championship. With the end of the season less than a week away, it is not yet certain where the Canadiens will finish in the Canadian Division, but one sure thing is that they will be hard to eliminate from the play-offs.

The speed kings of a few years ago are a bit slower and older now and the younger French-Canadian players have not shown enough to take their places, but there still is plenty of strength, speed and skill in the Canadian line-up. Manager Cecil Hart depends mostly on his star regulars, using the spares only to give them brief periods.

Defensively the Canadiens are hard to beat. Sylvio Mantha and Marty Burke form a defence pair as hard to pass as any in the league, while Albert "Battleship" Leclerc and Bert McCaffery are not far behind.

Flyweight Title Will Be Settled At New York Soon

New York, March 13.—Black Bill of Cuba and Midget Wolgast, finalists in the long-drawn-out flyweight tournament that was started months ago in Madison Square Garden, meet here on March 31 for New York state recognition as the 110-pound ruler. They signed yesterday to box fifteen rounds on the Kid Chocolate-Al Ridgeway card at the garden.

Only a Stubborn Vancouver Defence Composed of Two Husky Lads, Walmsley and Ritchie, Kept the Calgary Team From Skating to a More Decisive Victory

The Calgarys uncorked a speedy and varied offensive, but their best efforts generally crashed at the Vancouver defence, which, on its display, has few peers in Canadian junior hockey circles.

As a result of this sterling defensive work, and of a lone goal obtained in the second period, when Scribner broke through the visiting defence on a pass from Cranston, the local lads entered the final frame leading 1 to 0, despite the fact that, offensively, they had been outplayed steadily for forty minutes. The continual punning of the defence received at the hands of the Calgary forwards took early in the third frame, however, and the visitors swarmed past temporarily cracked local defence for two goals and victory.

Paul got the first Calgary goal on a pass from Dyck right in the Vancouver goal mouth, while Carr got the second a short time later when he lifted a fast one from the defence past Milne, the local goalie.

The Calgary defence also showed up well during the game, their one lapse proving fatal. Vancouver's only goal came on the one time that the local forwards were allowed the liberty of penetrating as far as the Calgary goal mouth.

The lineups:
Vancouver—Milne, Ritchie, Walmsley, Davidson, Cranston and McKelvey.
Calgary—McKay, Paul, Hill, Aitken, Dyck and Carr.
Vancouver subs—Scribner, Follis and Edwards.
Calgary subs—Schreiner, Johnson, Moss and McConnell.
Referee—George Irvine, Vancouver.

SUMMARY
First period—No score. Penalties, Ritchie.
Second period—1. Vancouver, Scribner (Cranston), 17:15. Penalties, Scribner, Davidson.
Third period—2. Calgary, Paul (Dyck), 2:47; 3. Calgary, Carr, 4:53. Penalties, Hill (2), Davidson and Scribner.

HATCH COLT WINS PURSE

Bad News Boy Easily Best in Downs Allowance at Jefferson Park

New York, March 12.—Bad News Bob, a two-time winter winner for E. K. Bradley, turned in his first victory under B. C. Hatch's silks yesterday as he accounted for the Downs allowance purse at Jefferson Park, New Orleans.

The mile and seventy yards jaunt for three-year-olds was marked by a poor start in which two of the five horses were left at the post. Bad News Bob, however, was much the best of the trio that got away flying, winning by three lengths over Harry Payne Whitney's On the Air. The Hatch colt paid $8.10 in the mutuels.

Paul T. Chinn turned in an easy winner in the Vedado Park Hotel purse at Oriental Park, Havana, his Colonel Drage taking the six-furlong sprint with speed to spare. He led home J. M. Reed's Beau Aspin, J. T. Ireland's Merry Windsor and five others, including Listering, the favorite.

U.C.T. Donate Medals For Boys' Hoop Champions

When the Vancouver Island junior boys' basketball title is decided, the winners will be the happy possessors of the R. A. C. Heben Cup, and in addition to this trophy each individual player will receive a silver medal. These medals were given by members of the local branch of the United Commercial Travelers with the hope of increasing interest among the younger generation in the hoop pastime.

Dr. W. J. Bruce, formerly of the Shaughnessy Golf Club, Vancouver, and now a resident here, scored a hole-in-one at the Victoria Golf Club yesterday. The "dodo" was scored on the eighth hole which is 118 yards long. Dr. Bruce was playing with Dr. Garesche, Col. Bennett and Alex. Fraser.

Joe Bayley and Al Davies Working Out With Victoria Bantamweight

Jumbo Davies, Victoria's youth-fut aspirant for the northwest bantamweight title, is now working hard in preparation for the ten-round championship contest with Jackie Caston, which is to be staged at the Crystal Garden on Monday, March 24.

Two former ring celebrities, possibly the most outstanding pugilists that were ever developed here, have volunteered their service in order to help the local youngster condition himself for what is expected will prove the most critical bout that he has engaged in.

The veterans are Joe Bayley, ex-Canadian lightweight champion, and Al Davies, formerly Pacific Coast bantamweight champion, and claimant of the Canadian title. These two experienced ring men are boxing with Jumbo every other night, and are endeavoring to improve his fighting qualities which should benefit him to a great extent in his set to with the rugged boxer in Seattle fighter.

According to local fans who witnessed the previous bout between these boxers at Seattle and the radio description of the fight, Caston did not put up a clean fight. Davies made a wonderful hit with the Seattle fight fans by continuing to box along clean lines, and at the finish of the contest Jumbo was given a great ovation by the Seattleites.

Several Times offers have been received for Jumbo to appear at recent Seattle and Tacoma promotions, but they were all turned down so that the local fans might have a chance to see a return match between Jumbo and Caston.

New York, March 13.—The youthful Ottawa Senators have placed themselves among the most dangerous contenders in the approaching play-offs for the Stanley Cup and the world's championship.

A late sport has given them a tie with Les Canadiens of Montreal, for second place in the league's international group. To-night they meet the New York Americans in New York in the first half of a two-game series that will end their regular season and decide whether they will finish second or third. The Canadiens tackle the battered and weary Senators at Montreal to-night and also close their season against the Americans.

The third game, on to-night's schedule, sends the Boston Bruins to Chicago for a game postponed from early in February. If the Black Hawks can maintain their record of winning every home game from the world's champions of 1929, they will be almost certain of finishing ahead of the crippled New York Rangers in the American group standing.

Defeat Blairmore And Earn Right To Meet Saskatchewan

British Columbia's Amateur Hockey Champions Will Clash With Saskatchewan's Champions in Western Canada Semi-finals at Saskatoon; Defeat Alberta Champions 3-1 in Second Game and Win Series by 6-2 Count; Houbregs Outstanding Player for Trail.

Canadian Press

Trail, B.C., March 13.—Trail's Smoke Eaters are now en route to Saskatoon where they will engage the Saskatchewan amateur hockey champions in the Western Canadian Allan Cup semi-finals. The locals earned the right to meet the prairie province's champions as a result of their 3-1 victory over Blairmore, Alberta titleholders, in the second contest of their two-game series, here yesterday evening, a victory which gave them the round by a 6 to 2 count.

As in the first game, the British Columbia champions yesterday evening showed marked superiority over Blairmore. Although for a time the visitors threatened to upset the dope and get back into contention.

Early in the first period Blairmore unleashed a stirring offensive in an effort to make up for ground lost in the first game. They did manage to pop in one goal, McVey beating Garland in the first two minutes of play, to put the visitors within one goal of Trail's total, but there they were stopped, and from then on the locals dominated the play.

REGAIN ADVANTAGE
The Smoke-eaters got their two-goal advantage back late in the first session when Kendall beat the Alberta defence on a pass from Houbregs and then flipped the disc past the unprotected Blairmore custodian from close range.

The Albertans showed a little more life in the second period, but could not crash the stonewall Trail defence. With only thirty seconds of play remaining in the period, the locals increased the lead on the round to three goals when Brennan, star centre player, ripped a pass from Kendall past Kemp, during a scramble in front of the Alberta net. That goal just about sealed Blairmore's fate.

The locals' defensive system showed no signs of weakening in the final period, while they added another goal to their margin, the third period goal which was scored by Houbregs, big Trail defence man, was the prettiest effort of the night. Houbregs obtained at his own blue line, evaded the remaining Alberta forwards, stepped speedily past the defence, and whipped a fast one past the goalie from close range.

The lineups:
Blairmore—D. Kemp, Manson, Johnson, J. Kemp, Oakes and McVey.
Trail—Garland, Reddick, Houbregs, Brennan, Kendall and Hazard.
Blairmore subs—McKay, Dicken, Veihra and Evans.
Trail subs—Wheatley, A. Mackie and C. Mackie.
Referee—C. C. Powers, Canmore.

SUMMARY
First period—1. Blairmore, McVey, 2:17; 2. Trail, Kendall (Houbregs), 14:47. Penalties, Johnson.
Second period—3. Trail, Brennan (Kendall), 19:20. Penalties, McVey, J. Kemp, Reddick and Oakes.
Third period—4. Trail, Houbregs, 16:16. Penalties, Reddick, Kemp.

OF THE MISSAPAT GOLF CLUB
By Barrie Parso

Forced to call upon several outside players in order to fill out their eleven, Batchelors forfeited the points in their match with the Hudson's Bay. A friendly match was played and Batchelors managed to eke out a close win. Playing with the slope in their favor in the first half the Bays, although playing with ten men, opened the scoring. Small heading the ball past Carey, in Batchelors' net, Batchelors tied the score before half-time.

Bridge shooting the goal.
The Bays took the lead again early in the second half, Davis driving the ball between the sticks. Taking the offensive Batchelors went on a scoring spree to net two goals to gain a victory. Both counters were scored by "Scotty" Magee.

REVIEW REFERRED:
The teams were as follows:
Batchelors' Food Stores—Carey, Bie-sell, Harwood, Mercer, Wright, Flater, Taylor, Briggs, Brown, Magee and Stevens.
Hudson's Bay—Geddes, Gardiner, Armstrong, Gull, Woodley, Oakman, Newell, Fish, Wallace, Small and Davis.

Amateur Ball Clubs Are Busy Organizing

Veteran Lorimer Is Selected As Manager of Elks

Antlered Tribe New Entry in Senior League Will Have Formidable Club; Hold Organization Meeting; Jokers Definitely Decide to Compete Again; Will Field About Same Club as That Which Won Title Last Year; Sons in Difficulties With Players Under Suspension.

With "Old Man Sunshine" beaming forth with regularity these last few days amateur baseballers are rooting around and looking for the old glove and shoes that have been stored away during the winter months. The players seem decidedly keen this season and it begins to look as if the Senior Amateur League will experience one of its greatest seasons in history. The majority of last year's four senior clubs who are competing again this year will trot out about the same line-ups as carried their colors in 1929.

Yesterday evening the Elks, the new entry in the league, held their organization meeting at the clubrooms of the lodge. Walter Lorimer, well-known baseball enthusiast, was selected as chairman, and plans and prospects for the coming season were discussed. There was a good representation of last year's players of the Victoria Capitals, Island League champions in attendance, and it looks as if the lodge will have a formidable club.

Walter Lorimer was selected as manager of the club and with this veteran at the helm the antlered tribe should go a long way towards winning the city title. Lorimer has the honor of being manager of the last Victoria team to win a British Columbia championship, being as the head of the Elks' club when they defeated Ioco in the finals of the GET COPS' PLAYERS.

Among players and officials present at the meeting were: Herb Cummin, Tom Forbes, Tommy Bowden, Tommy Forbes, Jack McKinnon, Cy Milne, Murry Dunn and Jimmy Dangier. Other players known to have thrown in their lot with the Elks are Art Webster and Roy Copas. The Elks will start throwing the ball around in a few weeks, and with the arrival of warm weather will get down to serious practice.

The Jokers, winners of the championship last season, have definitely decided to enter the league again this season. They held their organization meeting recently and elected Dave Donaldson playing manager of the club. Donaldson was at the helm last season, and hopes to pilot his club to their second title. The Jokers will most likely have all of last year's players back in the fold, including Stickey, Belcher, Collins, D'Arcy, "Hap" Gandy, Devereaux, Smith and others.

SONS ANXIOUS
The Sons of Canada will be under the management of Jack Bacon this season. The Canadians at the present time are rather up against it as a number of their players are still under suspension, and it is not known just when the ban will be lifted. Bill Holman, Jack Bacon, Colin Campbell and Orville Falconer are the players suspended. They will have to send in letters of apology before the league will take them back into its good graces again. Steve Dunn, a member of the Eagles last season, is also still under suspension.

Just who the Tillamums will have this season is not known. Last year their club was handled by Tommy Green, who gathered together a shabby bunch of youngsters and gave the other clubs a stiff run. However, Green has left the city and it is not known whether he will be back again or not. The Eagles are also dark horses. Just who will manage them or what players they will have is unknown.

Cook Wins Easily Over Christner

Youngstown, Ohio, March 13.—George Cook, Australian heavyweight, won a newspaper decision over K. O. Christner of Akron in ten rounds here yesterday evening. Only the third round was conceded to Christner. Cook was allowed fifteen minutes' rest after he was fouled in the first round.

Women Athletes Criticized

By JIMMY THOMPSON

Does competitive athletics endanger the health of the child of to-day, the man or woman of to-morrow? This question, especially in the realm of women's sport, has aroused a great deal of discussion lately. Many medical men claim that the woman who enters into competitive sport is endangering her future, her married life, and the health of her children as well as her own, pointing out that women are biologically not designed to undergo the rigors of an active sport life. They also claim that women who take an active part in sport forfeit much of their feminine charm and so are much less attractive to men. Sporting trainers and women athletes laugh at these theories and steadfastly maintain that sports not only do not harm women but are actually beneficial. Alonzo Stagg, famous football coach, points out that, at the University of Chicago, a vote among the women students was unfavorable to women competing in sport. At Montreal Dr. Jesse P. Williams, professor of physical education at Columbia University, told a meeting of the Quebec Physical Education Society that women are biologically unfit for competitive athletics. He believes that competition is dangerous to their health and that a great deal of harm will follow it, especially in so far as everything connected with the future generation is concerned. Rosa Grosse is the girl who first sponsored sprinting for girls in Ontario. She is now Mrs. Bert O'Neill and the mother of two bonnie children, Lorne, aged two years, and Doreen, aged ten and a half months. Mrs. O'Neill holds the world's record for the 100-yard yard at eleven seconds and was for years unbeatable at that distance in either Canada or the United States.

BOWLING

By winning two games from the Jokers, winners of the first half championship, the Huskies remained in the running for the second half title at the Arcade Alley yesterday evening. The Huskies are now one game behind The Colonist Typos, who are setting the pace in the second half. After winning the first game the Jokers slipped badly to let their opponents capture the next two. Bobby Laughton, of the Huskies, was high individual and aggregate scorer with totals of 290 and 672.

In the final fixture of the season in the Commercial League the Poodie Dog won two out of three games from the Royal Arcanum yesterday. By their victory the cafemen finished in second place in the final standings with the Rogues, a new entry in the league this season, third. Stan Wallis, of the Royal Arcanum, was high aggregate scorer with 511, while George Wilkinson, of the Poodie Dog, turned in the best individual game with 185. Complete scores follow:

Adanacs Defeat Crusaders Five In Third Tussle

New Westminster, March 13.—New Westminster Adanacs, Canadian champions, won the third contest of the five-game series for the championship of the Vancouver and District Basketball League title by defeating Crusaders 17 to 15 here yesterday evening. The locals now have won two games to Crusaders' one, and need only one more victory to clinch the title.

Swimmers Hold Swim Handicaps

Jamie Cameron, Winnie Pollard and C. Haves carried off first honors in the weekly handicap meet of the Crystal Garden Amateur Swimming Club at the pool yesterday evening, when they won the men's handicap, women's handicap and diving respectively. A fair number of swimmers turned out for the practice and held a polo workout under Jack McNeill, following the races.

Results of the different events follow:
Men's fifty-yard handicap—1. J. Cameron; 2. Ted Silingsby; 3. W. T. M. Barrett.
Ladies' fifty-yard handicap—1. W. Pollard; 2. Betty Pollard; 3. Buddy Bravender.
Diving, open—1. C. Haves; 2. A. Garnot; 3. Lawrence and J. Cameron.

"Wildcat" Earns Easy Decision Over Don Fraser

Seattle, March 13.—Scoring a clean-cut decision over Don Fraser, of Spokane, in a six-round bout here yesterday evening, Wildcat Carter, Everett junior welterweight, continued his winning pace in his comeback campaign. Carter knocked Fraser down for the count of nine in the third canto.

"Y" Swimmers To Decide Titles At Garden To-night

Senior, intermediate and junior swimming and diving championships of the local Y.M.C.A. will be decided at the Crystal Garden pool to-night, when the swimmers of the association turn out in force to strive for the honors. From the crack of the starter's gun in the first race, at 8 o'clock, to the final event, competition is expected to be keen and the races fast.

SAANICH ONLY CLUB TO NOTCH UP A VICTORY

Defeat Fairfield Badminton Stars 9-7; Two Other Matches End in Draws

J.B.A.A. in Fighting Finish to Gain Unlooked For Tie With Garrison

Three matches were played yesterday evening in the Lower Island Badminton League, third division. North Saanich beat Fairfield 9-7, while the other matches ended in draws. The J.B.A.A. at home to the Garrison at the Gorge, put on a fighting finish to secure a draw, while the Christ Church and Y.M.C.A. squads also battled on even terms in their match.

Fairfield made the journey to Deep Cove minus two women players, and their other two women had to work overtime and played eight sets each. North Saanich won three doubles while their women were held up even terms and then split the eight mixed doubles. Several good matches took place during the evening which also included the odd surprise. Mrs. White and Miss Taylor beat Miss Goddard and Mrs. McIlraith in the women's doubles for their first defeat at home this season. The North Saanich first pairs in the men's, women's and mixed doubles have been defeated less than ten times in the season. The first division but two of them fell yesterday evening before the churchmen. Mr. and Mrs. White administered a 17-5 defeat to Miss Goddard and Mrs. McIlraith in the mixed doubles in one of the best encounters of the programme.

LEAD DOUBLES
The Garrison at the Gorge accumulated an early lead only to see it dwindle in the closing stages of the match. The games saw several times but after the half-way mark the teams were evenly matched. The teams each took two women's doubles while the visiting men secured a one-game lead in the men's doubles by winning three matches to their opponents' one. However, the mixed doubles was a different story and the J.B.A.A. came through with five victories for a draw. Miss Hedley and Hocking defeated Miss Weeks and Huxtable in the most interesting argument of the evening. After the first set after their opponents had accumulated a lead that nearly carried them to victory. The score reached 13-11 and then the J.B.A.A. pulled out to 15-13 in the bye only to have the Garrison players tie up the score at 16-16 and then win on their service. Peggy Parsons and Billy Parsons had a close and exciting match with Mrs. Thomas and Peers the score ending at 15-13 for the Garrison players.

CHRIST CHURCH LUCKY
Christ Church at home to the Y.M.C.A. did not show up so well as in other home games but were lucky they didn't suffer defeat. Both teams won two women's doubles. The Simmons brothers came from nowhere to catch the "Y" duo of Harper and Witter. To turn another likely defeat into victory at 17-14. The winners played well in the dying stages of the match, to give their side an even break in that series. The mixed doubles, too, was evenly divided and all were quite decisive.

The scores in the Fairfield-North Saanich match, with the Fairfield players first names, follow:
MEN'S DOUBLES
Fish and White lost to Anderson and Mitchell, 17-14.
McQuaid and G. White lost to McIlraith and Bodkin, 15-8.
Fish and White beat McIlraith and Bodkin, 15-8.
McQuaid and G. White lost to Anderson and Mitchell, 15-8.

WOMEN'S DOUBLES
Mrs. White and Miss Taylor lost to Miss Goddard and Mrs. McIlraith, 15-8.
Mrs. White and Miss Taylor beat Miss G. Goddard and Miss Gwynne, 15-1.
Mrs. White and Miss Taylor beat Miss Goddard and Mrs. McIlraith, 15-1.

MIXED DOUBLES
Miss Taylor and Fish lost to Miss Goddard and Anderson, 15-4.
Mr. and Mrs. White lost to Mr. and Mrs. McIlraith, 15-8.
Mrs. Taylor and Fish lost to Mr. and Mrs. McIlraith, 15-6.
Mr. and Mrs. White beat Miss Goddard and Anderson, 17-15.
Mrs. Taylor and Fish beat Miss G. Goddard and Mitchell, 15-7.
Mrs. White and G. White beat Miss Gwynne and Bodkin, 15-8.
Miss Taylor and McQuaid lost to Miss Gwynne and Bodkin, 15-12.
Mrs. White and G. White beat Miss G. Goddard and Mitchell, 15-13.

The scores of the J.B.A.A.-Garrison match, with the former players mentioned first, follow:
MEN'S DOUBLES
Mrs. Foote and Mrs. Thomas lost to Miss Hedley and Miss M. Bullock-Webster, 15-13.
Miss Weeks and Miss Cheer won from Miss Parsons and Miss Thomas, 15-13.
Mrs. Foote and Mrs. Thomas won from Miss Parsons and Miss Thomas, 15-8.
Miss Weeks and Miss Cheer lost to Miss Hedley and Miss M. Bullock-Webster, 15-13.

MIXED DOUBLES
Huxtable and Poyntz lost to Hocking and Hunter, 7-15.
Huxtable and Poyntz won from Parsons and Jones, 15-8.
Peers and Temple lost to Parsons and Jones, 11-15.
Miss Weeks and Huxtable lost to Miss Hedley and Hocking, 16-17.
Miss Cheer and Temple won from Miss Hedley and Hocking, 15-13.

several times threatened the Central line. However, the extra weight of their opponents proved too much for them and they were unable to get across, although they were still pressing at half time.

In the second half the Central boys brought their heavy artillery to bear on the Oaklands' line, and the latter team was on the defence most of the time.

SCORE TWO MORE
Malcolm Taylor scored Central's thirty run when he crashed over following a run, and Billy Wallace closed the scoring a few minutes from time when he got over on a nice run.

Tom Horne refereed and the teams were:

Boys' Central—Caird, Webster, Taylor, McKee, Wallace, Ferguson, Barber, McLean, Thorson, Miles, Davidson, Jackson, Butler, Watson and Gannon.

Oaklands—Rhodes, Gosteller, Berry, Blackstock, Simpson, Painter, Anderson, Young, Gardiner, Humphries, McKeecher, Campbell, Murray, Birnie and Bone.

"Y" Swimmers Show Speed in Practice
Denny Walker, C. McRae, Ken Roskelly, Mary Moffat and R. Wight won the handicap races at the Y.M.C.A. pool yesterday evening.
The young swimmers showed plenty of speed and were in excellent form for the gala this evening.

CENTRAL WINS FIRST CURTIS CUP FIXTURE

Defenders of Trophy Eliminate Oaklands By 12-0 Score in School Rugby Match

Boys' Central, defenders of the Curtis Cup, turned back the assaults of Oaklands in the first round of the school rugby series at the Willows yesterday afternoon and left the field with a 12-0 victory to their credit. The superior weight and experience of the Central squad accounted for its victory over the hard fighting, but light Oaklands' team.

The boys turned in good performance and gave a very fair exhibition of rugby throughout the match. However, with the exception of the half-back division, Central proved too strong for the losers and romped through to gain two tries in each half and eliminate Oaklands from further competition.

GAME TO-DAY
This afternoon St. Michael's squad was playing Monterey Avenue at Oak Bay Park, while to-morrow the Willows will clash with the University School at the Willows Park.

Two minutes after the start of yesterday's game, Watson, forward for Central, broke through on a rush and fell on the ball for his school's first try. The kick for extra points failed.

Ten minutes later, Austin Webster, fast wing three, took the ball following a pretty run and sped across to touch it down for the second tally, which was not countered.

Facing this deficit, the Oaklands boys threw themselves into the game, and

CANADA GETTING "AWFUL LICKING," EVANS DECLARES

British Bakers Pictured as Hideous Dragon in Wheat
Pool Organ

Winnipeg, March 13.—Canada and United States are now getting "an awful licking" in the international wheat war now raging, W. Sagford Evans, M.P., told the Manitoba Legislature.

"I might refer as an example of what in my judgment is not a wise thing to do, to a cartoon which appeared in the last issue of The Scoop Show, the official organ of the Manitoba Pool." Mr. Evans went on. "There is shown a hideous dragon in a garden, with a gallant knight on horseback with his spear, and a beautiful maiden tied to a tree. The handsome knight is the Canadian Pool. The hideous dragon is the bread trusts of the United Kingdom. The maiden is the consumer of Great Britain. Fight! Against whom? Against the millers and bakers of Great Britain who are our customers? The ultimate consumer does not buy from us.

"A gentleman who returned just recently from Europe told me that he was, while in Europe, talking with an important importer of grain. Some point came up and this man left the office and came back with a full file of The Scoop Show, and also of The Western Producer. Europe knows about everything of that kind and has been keeping track of it for the last four or five years."

"Are we going to do business on sound lines, or are we going to tilt against dragons?"

ESTIMATES ARE DEBATE TOPIC IN COMMONS

Members Express Views on Committee Proposal; Premier and Dunning Speak

Ottawa, March 13.—Brief sitting of the House of Commons yesterday was devoted to a discussion of how best to handle the departmental estimates which come before parliament year after year. Debate arose on a motion of W. T. Lucas, U.F.A., member for Camrose, which asked the House to declare the estimates should be referred to select standing committees before being submitted to the committee of the whole house. Subsequently, an amendment was offered by O. G. Coote, U.F.A., member for Macleod, which would limit the scope of the original motion. The Coote amendment advocated the submission of "certain" estimates to select standing committees, or other committees of the House, before their final review in the Commons chamber.

DEBATE TO-DAY
The resolution and amendment were still under discussion when 6 p.m. the hour of the Wednesday evening adjournment came round. It retained its position at the top of the list, being sent on for debate to-day.

Opinion as to the value of the proposal varied.

PREMIER SPEAKS
Premier King said that if the resolution was made less general in its terms the government would have no objection to it passing.

Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, while asserting the government had no desire to oppose full investigation of the estimates, drew attention to the experience of the British House. There, he said, a committee on estimates had been set up prior to the war, but it had not functioned to any extent. Subsequently another committee had been created which did not review the estimates as they came before the House, but instead investigated the government departments from time to time.

H. B. Adairhead, Labor, Calgary East, thought the proposal would bring about better and speedier information.

The resolution, in the opinion of William Irvine, Progressive, Wetaskiwin, did not go far enough. If democracy was to have any meaning the House itself must control the expenditures of public money and not have this function exclusively exercised by the Cabinet.

TOO MUCH MACHINERY
A. W. Neil, Independent, Comox-Alberni, took issue with the suggestion. There was no use in creating a useless duplication of work, he said.

BENNETT'S VIEWS
There could be no reduction or increase in the amount of estimates by a committee such as Mr. Lucas proposed, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, declared. All the committees could do would be to examine estimates, determine the circumstances which had led to the inclusion of the items, and consider whether the amounts were appropriate. The government, which had the responsibility for expenditures, was also responsible for the amounts appearing in the estimates. Mr. Bennett recommended the public accounts committee investigate government departments from time to time.

The Public Accounts Committee, suggested Mr. Bennett, might conduct non-partisan investigations into the various departments, review their sources of revenue, check their expenditures and generally go over the whole field of operation. In this way he thought Parliament would be thoroughly informed as to the operation of the various departments.

COMMONS MAY CHANGE ITS OLD VOTING SYSTEM

Ottawa House Considers Plan of Having Different Lobbies
For Groups

Ottawa, March 13.—The House of Commons may change its system of recording the votes of the members on divisions. A system, similar to that used in the British Commons, may be adopted as a result of the mistake made on the vote Tuesday evening on the Woodworth-private bill, which proposed divorce courts be established in Ontario, the measure being defeated by one vote—78 to 79.

Under the British system members bring forward, and against any motion or amendment file into separate lobbies. A suggestion for a change, it is understood, was made by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, and supported by Premier King in the course of a discussion the Commons held behind closed doors, with the public excluded, for half an hour yesterday afternoon before the day's business was started.

PROTEST BY BOURASSA
During the discussion, Henri Bourassa, Independent, Labelle, Quebec, objected to dispatches carried by the Canadian Press from Toronto and Brantford, Ontario, giving comments on the defeat of the divorce court bill.

One of these comments, by W. J. Carson, newly-elected grand master of the Royal Black Chapter, Loyal Orange Lodge, objected "that French-Canadians of Quebec province should be in a position to say Ontario shall or shall have been passed over the heads the policies of a sister province."

Mr. Bourassa protested against this. He declared that of the seventy-eight votes recorded in support of the divorce court bill, twenty-six Ontario members voted against the measure and twenty-three for it. And the Quebec members abstained from voting the bill would have been passed over by the heads of an Ontario majority against it. Mr. Bourassa vigorously declared for "British fair play" to all members, and their right to vote as they saw fit on any question.

TO DISCUSS QUESTION AGAIN
There will be further discussion on the divorce question in the House. W. Irvine, U.F.A., Wetaskiwin, gave notice of a motion to bring the bill back on the order paper and have the vote on second reading taken over again. The vote Tuesday evening was seventy-eight yeas and seventy-nine nays, but there was a "mix-up" when the count was taken and some of the members, said to have kept their own tally, got still different results.

Mr. Bourassa also has a resolution and a bill on divorce for presentation to the House.

CORPORATION BUYS
Regina, March 13.—J. A. Caulder, president and general manager of the Dairy Corporation of Canada, has completed negotiations for the purchase of the Purdy Dairy at a price said to be in the neighborhood of $250,000. Those involved in the sale of the Purdy Dairy were G. L. Goodie, Mr. Edgar, and A. W. Edgar, manager. Mr. Edgar, under the purchase agreement, will continue as managing director of the Dairy Corporation of Canada.

Will Address Group

The first open meeting arranged by the local group of the New Education Fellowship will be held to-night in the Girls' Central School, with Dr.

Ernest Thomas of Toronto as the speaker. Dr. Thomas is field secretary of the social service department of the United Church of Canada, and is in the city in connection with the training school for teachers and others engaged in church and social work.

In his lecture, Dr. Thomas is expected to deal with new philosophy arising from recent findings in the realm of physics, biology, and psychology.

UNUSUAL PROTEST SUGGESTED
London, March 13.—Sir. Hon. Arthur Henderson, Foreign Secretary, was asked in the House of Commons yesterday whether on view of religious persecution in Russia he would consider inviting the co-operation of all the powers represented at Moscow in making a simultaneous protest and effecting the simultaneous withdrawal of their missions in the event of this persecution continuing. He replied that at present he was not prepared to take any initiative on these lines.

YOUNG PLAN APPROVED
Berlin, March 13.—President von Hindenburg to-day signed the Young Plan a few minutes after it had been approved by the Reichstag with an urgency clause making it immediately effective as far as Germany is concerned. The associated liquidation agreements have not yet been signed, as the President is formally obliged to investigate whether any of these agreements are in conflict with the constitution.

New Gillette Razor

Spend a few pennies today for the greatest shaving improvement in twenty-eight years

THE old Gillette was a good servant. The New Gillette Blade and Razor (patents pending) is a better one—very much better.

You never need waste your time wiping this razor dry. And there's never any "razor pull" to deprive you of shaving comfort. These are only two of many improvements that have been made.

In tackling the problem of "razor pull," thousands of men were interviewed. Tens of thousands of razors were examined. The evidence all pointed one way. Most razors had been dropped and the corners dented. The dent threw the blade out of alignment. And this caused "razor pull." The smallest dent could do great harm, for your Gillette is a finely precision instrument.

Now the trouble is solved. In the New Gillette Razor the four corners have been reinforced to withstand the hardest knocks. The four corners of the new blade are cut out. The blade is not held at its corners at all when cap and guard are screwed together. There's no chance of its being thrown out of alignment even if the razor is dropped.

When you're through shaving with this new razor, there's no wiping necessary. You don't need to take it apart. Because this new blade is specially processed to resist rust, you merely hold razor under hot running water, shake thoroughly . . . and lay on the shelf.

Gone are the old posts that held the blade and accidentally stubbed so many keen edges. Please note too, how the new guard teeth are rounded back farther, to meet the skin more smoothly, more comfortably.

Another great convenience — the ends of the new blade are square, for safer handling with wet fingers. The square ends fit flush with cap and guard and permit closer shaving around the tight little corners of mouth, nose and ears.

Changed and improved as this new Gillette Blade is, it has been designed so it will fit your old razor until you are able to get your New Gillette. The new razor, 24K. gold-plated, and in a beautiful case with New Gillette Blade is only one dollar. The new Gillette Blade in the new green package costs one dollar for ten, or fifty cents for five.

QUICK FACTS

1. New blade can be used in your old Gillette.
2. New processed steel; new blade resists rust.
3. Cut-out corners of blade prevent "razor pull."
4. To clean, turn guard at right angles . . . then re-tighten . . . rinse . . . shake dry.
5. New shape guard channel gives full shaving clearance.
6. New shape guard teeth meet skin smoothly, naturally.
7. No projecting posts to dull blade edges.
8. Reinforced razor corners prevent damage if dropped.
9. Square blade ends safer to handle.
10. Shaves easier around mouth, nose, ears.
11. New blades same price as old.
12. New razor, 24K. gold-plated, with one new blade, in case, $1.00.

Spring Opening Exposition

An Authentic Presentation of Spring's Newest Styles

With the return of feminizing details in women's apparel our spring opening displays take on an added importance this year. So radical are the changes that every woman who desires to be up-to-date must make a special study of this season's styles. We extend to you a very cordial invitation to attend this event from which you will be able to gather the most authentic information about styles for spring, 1930.

New Sports Suits

Imported From Europe

From Paris, Vienna, Switzerland and Britain come a fine selection of Knitted Suits in one and two-piece styles. They are the "right thing" and "the very latest" for sports or any activity.

There are fancy pullovers with skirts to match or in a plain shade to tone. Some have pleated skirts in a fancy weave, the same material being used to trim the jumper. The three-piece-type is mostly made with sleeveless jumper and a sleeveless cardigan.

A fine selection of new shades include combinations of brown and yellow, navy and red, navy and yellow, navy and light blue, brown and sand and many others. Prices $35.00 and $39.50

Paris Sends Two-piece Suits

Two-piece Suits in French jersey cloth in jumper models or the new bloused styles giving a higher waistline. They are trimmed with insets of contrasting colors, grouped buttons and novelty seaming and have jaunty skirts. Colors are blue, green, yellow, beige, rose, etc. Price $16.50

Tweed Skirts From England

You must have an English Tweed Skirt this spring for they are more in style than ever. Wrapper types and tailored effects with grouped pleats are shown in lovely quality tweeds, pin-checks, stripes, rough homespun, diagonals and smooth-faced coatings. They are trimmed with fancy seams, buttons and novelty pockets. Prices $4.95 and $6.50

—Second Floor, HBC

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Rotary Club warmly welcomed to its luncheon meeting to-day James Hunter, who, owing to illness, has been absent from the club's meetings for some time.

Five motorists were fined $3.50 each in City Police Court this morning for parking longer than one hour in restricted areas. Another was fined $5 for failing to park at the proper angle to the curb.

Annie Eales, charged under the Minimum Wage Act, was again remanded for one week when called in City Police Court this morning. Illness of the defendant made it necessary to stand the case over.

Permit for the construction of a four-room stucco bungalow at 1825 Lillian Road was issued at the City Hall to-day to Mrs. M. Devitt. The work will cost in the neighborhood of $3,100.

A lecture on the Second Coming of Christ will be given at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening by Miss Elaine Scribner, before the Victoria Theosophical Society, at the Pemberton Building. The address was originally scheduled to be delivered next Tuesday.

A return debate between the Civil Service Literary and Debating Club and the effective speaking group of the junior division of the Chamber of Commerce will take place at the chambers this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be open to members of both organizations and their friends.

A preparatory service will be held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, to-night at 8 o'clock to prepare for the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which will be administered on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All those desiring of going to the church are asked to be there at 7.45 o'clock this evening.

An Irish concert will be given at the Rex Theatre, Esquimalt, on St. Patrick's night, Monday next at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League. The following artists will appear: Mrs. L. E. Wilson, Mrs. Foote, Major and Mrs. Crompton, F. Gratton, Miss Gladys Sheppard and Roy Goldfinch.

The Victoria Male Voice Choir, which will give a concert on Tuesday next in Amphion Hall, under the auspices of the Royal Society of St. George, is a musical aggregation of fifty male singers, whose progress and success Victoria citizens are deeply interested in. Under the leadership of Frank H. Tugman, the choir has achieved the best male choir in the west. The programme to be given on Tuesday evening will offer many new and interesting songs, popular choral renderings. Miss Isabel Crawford will be the soloist for the evening.

BROKERS FACE TRIAL

Ottawa, March 13.—R. Harold Mowat and Duncan A. MacGillivray, joint heads of the recently resigned brokerage business bearing their names, were placed under arrest this afternoon on charges of conspiring together to defraud the public. The warrants, formally served at the Ottawa police station at 12.45 o'clock, were sworn out by Morality Inspector Thomas McLaughlin on instructions from Hon. W. H. Price, Ontario Attorney-General.

Baptist W.M.S.—The March meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will be held on Monday, March 17, at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Arantfy Kefoury, Aged 117, Was Oldest B.C. Resident

Vancouver, March 13.—British Columbia's oldest resident died this morning. Mrs. Arantfy Kefoury, who was born before the battle of Waterloo, witnessed the French occupation of Syria, and who came to Canada in 1899, at 8.45 o'clock in St. Paul's Hospital.

"Granny" Kefoury, as she was known at the hospital, where she had lived for the past five years, was in her 117th year.

Her last years have been spent in seclusion, and her death will be felt at St. Paul's Hospital, where the tap of "Granny's" stick in the corridors was a familiar sound.

Although an inmate of the hospital for several years she was quite active, and had been making her way about the institution with the aid of her stick. She could not speak English, but had contrived an elaborate system of signs to communicate her wishes.

She was born in Mount Lebanon, Syria, and when in a reminiscence mood recalled many incidents of her life there, the French occupation of the country.

In 1899 she migrated to Canada by way of Halifax. She lived in Montreal for four years and then moved to Valleyfield, Que., for fifteen years and resided at Fernie, B.C., and then came to Vancouver, first living at the Catholic Monastery here and later St. Paul's Hospital.

The funeral of the late Louise Allison de Weir Moore will take place on Friday afternoon, proceeding from McColl Bros. Funeral Home to the Reformed Episcopal Church, where service will be held at 2.30 o'clock. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

The funeral of Richard Ambrose Burnett, whose death occurred on March 10, took place yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the Thomson & Fetterly Funeral Home. Rev. S. T. Galbraith officiated. The pall-bearers were: A. R. Horner, A. Randall, W. B. Morrison, T. Fellow, J. Rooney and A. Francis. Many beautiful floral tributes covered the casket. The hymns sung were, "Hearer, My God, Thy Word" and "Abide With Me." Mr. Lawson Partington presided at the organ. Interment was in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

The death occurred in Seattle, on March 11, of Mrs. Emily Graves-Boot, a native of Leicester, England, who had resided for many years in Victoria and Seattle. She is survived by one son and one daughter, one daughter in England and a daughter in Australia, and five grandchildren. The remains will arrive in this city on Saturday and will be conveyed by the Bank Funeral Company to Ross Bay Cemetery, where Canon F. A. P. Chadwick will officiate at the interment.

Joseph Shakespeare Pennell, proprietor of the Oak Bay Meat Market, passed away suddenly at his home, 974 Cowichan Street, yesterday afternoon, aged seventy years. He was born in Dudley, England, and is survived by his widow, three daughters, two sons-in-law and six grandchildren. Private funeral service will be held from the B.C. Funeral Chapel and is requested that no flowers be sent.

After a careful survey, the management of Deforest Croesley Radio Company has issued a statement expressing the opinion that 1930 is expected to be a satisfactory year in the Canadian radio industry, because in Canada, particularly, a large percentage of the possible field for radios has not been covered, report from Toronto to Miller, Court & Company today says.

MODEL PLANE WINNERS ARE GIVEN PRIZES

Oak Bay Flight Gets Championship Pennant and Cup; F. Pierce Individual Star

Before a large gathering of enthusiastic model aircraft builders, prizes won at the recent indoor meet, were presented at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday evening. Flight and individual awards were distributed to the successful competitors at the opening of the programme, while later in the evening, Sydney Pickles, well-known local aviator, gave an illustrated address on the evolution of aviation from the era of the hot air balloon to the present day, included in the slides with which he illustrated his talk were pictures of machines that had made history in the air as well as celebrated aviators who had contributed greatly to the advancement of aviation.

The championship cup and pennant, donated by league headquarters, for the flight taking the highest number of points in the meet was presented to Ken Stevens, commander of the Oak Bay group. F. Pierce was awarded the Plumley and Ritchie prize for the individual grand aggregate competition, while Ken Stevens, runner-up, received a silver trophy.

The Times prize, for the best scale model in the show, was won by James Haggart. Spencers flight, runners-up in the aggregate contest, also received a subscription for The Model Aircraft magazine, the prize being donated by A. W. Carter.

KING'S PRINTER COMPLIMENTED

Efficiency of Department Draws Comment of Committee

Recommended to Finance Department Rent Be Charged For Building

A recommendation to the Finance Department that a charge for rent be made to the King's Printer for the new home the plant now occupies was made by the public accounts committee of the B.C. Legislature this morning after information on operation and costs had been given by C. F. Banfield, King's Printer.

rent of $150 a month on the building, recently erected at a cost of $158,000, was suggested as fair. Compliments on the efficiency of the establishment were paid to Banfield, who had given details of operation and of profits earned, but the opinion was voiced that where a department was operating in competition with outside industry it was only fair that all charges should be shown against profits.

In the case of the King's Printer it was pointed out there was no rent charge, no taxes, no building insurance and no soliciting expenses.

Mr. Banfield explained the King's Printer did not intend to do any printing outside work with the exception of printing the P.G.E. balance sheet, which was a small job that came through the annual report for the Workmen's Compensation Board and work for the Liquor Control Board. It also printed some school books and Canadian purchases in 1928-9 amounted to $109,000, British purchases $6,781, and United States purchases $3,653. Profits in the year amounted to $38,298. Profits from advertising in the B.C. Gazette amounted to $19,000. That the advertising rate had not been increased in twenty years was a bone of contention, the publishers of weekly newspapers, Mr. Banfield said.

The amendment sought blanket powers to take from consolidated revenue sufficient money to cover any increase that may be made in salaries during the year, and this too, drew strenuous criticism from Liberal speakers, not on the score of opposing increased salaries, but on the grounds that the government method of procedure was unsound.

NOTHING TO SAY

It meant, said Mr. Pattullo, that a sum which he estimated at $400,000, would be spent which was not shown in the estimates. It gave the government power to readjust salaries just as it liked and the Legislature would have nothing to say about it. He pointed out to the members that the main right of Parliament was to vote expenditures and their rights were being overridden. "If you members, who are feeling it necessary to give party fealty would exercise your authority you would have a better government," he said.

"What has stirring up mischief in the Conservative Party got to do with this bill?" Premier Tominia appealed to the Speaker.

Hon. Joshua Hinchcliffe, Minister of Education, rose to declare the feeling of restraint in the civil service was greater under the former administration and drew a comment from Capt. Ian MacKenzie that he was sorry for the civil servants left to the tender discriminatory mercy of the Minister of Education. He might be inclined to "come home to be fair and just but not the Minister of Education."

Several names have been mentioned among those who will be added to the board, with H. B. Thomson of Victoria considered as a certain choice if he decides to accept the position. The selection for the third man may rest between J. E. Smith of Vancouver and Magistrate H. O. Alexander of Vancouver. Samuel McCloy, former harbor commissioner of Vancouver, has also been mentioned.

At the caucus held yesterday it is understood that strong pressure was brought upon the Attorney-General against any other change in the Liquor Act on the grounds that interference contained prospect of considerable strife, although on some sides a greater measure of control over the extensive operations and appointments handled by the board was advocated.

MACHINERY IS CLAIMED

Suit Instituted in Supreme Court By Renneburg & Sons Limited

Suit for a declaration of ownership of fish-reduction machinery installed at the plant of the Albion Fisheries Limited, opened in the Supreme Court this morning before Chief Justice Morrison.

Edward Renneburg and Sons Limited are suing the Albion Fisheries Limited, the Canadian Packing Corporation, Fox, W. E. Taylor and W. J. Barrett-Lehmann.

The writ asks a declaration that machinery at the plant of the defendant fish reduction company is the property of the plaintiff, the setting aside of a lease by the Albion Fisheries to the Canadian Packing Corporation for alleged breach of a conditional sale agreement, and for damages.

C. E. O'Halloran appears for the plaintiff, D. S. Tait for the Albion Fisheries Limited and others, and A. D. Macfarlane, K.C., for the Canadian Packing Corporation. Hearing is proceeding.

Three amendments to the constitution, touching on the creation of arbitration boards, will be considered at the meeting.

CIVIL SERVICE STAFF NERVOUS

Unhealthy Restraint at Parliament Buildings, Says Opposition Leader

Agrees to Salary Increases But Says Amount Should Be in Estimates

Discussion on the civil service, with charges made by T. D. Pattullo, leader of the opposition, that there was an unhealthy restraint among workers at the Parliament Buildings which caused them to be in constant fear of being overlooked, was precipitated by an amendment to the Civil Service Act introduced by Hon. S. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary, yesterday.

The amendment sought blanket powers to take from consolidated revenue sufficient money to cover any increase that may be made in salaries during the year, and this too, drew strenuous criticism from Liberal speakers, not on the score of opposing increased salaries, but on the grounds that the government method of procedure was unsound.

WHEAT POOL IS DESCRIBED TO ROTARIANS

Discussion on Marketing Question Held By Clubmen at Luncheon

Percy Watson Tells of Its History: Talk on Monopolies Given By T. R. Myers

The wheat pool situation in Canada to-day is only an incident in a vast economic change throughout the world, it was suggested by Percy Watson in the course of a discussion on the subject at the Rotary Club luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day.

Mr. Watson, who was one of the speakers on the question of wheat marketing, outlined the history of the wheat pool and spoke of some of the things it had accomplished.

In 1901, he said, the idea of co-operative marketing had first been born owing to the dissatisfaction of farmers with prices they were getting for their product. Small groups of farmers were formed at that time but the formation of the Canadian Wheat Pool, which is now the biggest co-operative marketing organization known, came to completion.

LARGE TURNOVER

Something like 135,000 growers held membership in the pool now, said the speaker. In the 1928-29 year the turnover of the pool was $324,000,000, representing the largest business in Canada. It operated 1,600 line elevators and twelve terminal elevators, besides of co-equipment and stacks. It shipped to nineteen countries through ninety ports and had representatives in the various countries to which it shipped.

The wheat pool, he continued, was not a monopoly. Only fifty-five per cent of the growers of Canada were represented in it, and it handled only one-fifth of the world's wheat.

From a casual study of the situation, it seemed to Mr. Watson that the name of Canada was before the world to-day because of its wheat. The integrity of Canada was at stake, for if people of other countries believed Canadians had combined to take the bread out of their mouths, they would not have a very high opinion of the Dominion.

MONOPOLIES

T. R. Myers gave a short talk on the subject of monopolies, he referred to the granting of monopolies by Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth, and to the statute of 1624 which withdrew many of such privileges.

There was a good deal of odium attached to the term to-day, but monopolies, as now understood, were really commercial franchises, he said. They were essential in some lines of business to suppress wasteful competition.

H. E. Poorman, chairman of the club's public affairs committee, who had charge of the programme, said that the club did not intend to express any fixed opinion on the topic under discussion, but intended the talks merely for their educational value. As far as the wheat marketing question was concerned, he regarded it as the most vital matter before the people of Canada to-day and one that affected everyone in all walks of life.

FERRY ROUTE PRESSED FOR

Delegation Asks Government to Inaugurate Ferry Between Nanaimo and Gabriola Is.

To press for the proposed Gabriola Island-Nanaimo ferry route, a delegation of business men from Gabriola Island, Nanaimo and Vancouver, met at the Victoria Hotel to-day. The delegation consisted of Charles Jolley, J. R. Murray, Charles De Long, Kings Court II, W. R. Cowman of Victoria, B. Harrison, P. Cowman of Nanaimo, and W. S. Holland of Vancouver.

The Minister of Public Works gave the delegation a most sympathetic hearing and promised that his department would do all in its power to help the proposed ferry route materialize. The government realized the necessity for development between Gabriola and Vancouver Island, the delegation was told, and hopes to see the much-needed service become a reality in the near future.

TARIFF BOARD HEARS ALBERTA SHEEP BREEDERS

Prairie Men Want Duties on Meats Restored Against Australia

Before the Tariff Advisory Board to-day, the Southern Alberta Sheep Breeders Limited applied for a revision of the Canadian-Australian Trade Treaty with a view to restoring the duties on meats in force before the treaty was made.

The speakers said that in Alberta the sheep population had decreased by 64,000 head last year. Breeders were having difficulty in disposing of their lambs at satisfactory prices and were rushing to get out of the business. This selling of flocks further aggravated conditions, it was stated.

The application was represented by G. K. Watts of the Southern Alberta Sheep Breeders and O. E. O'Brien, manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers of Toronto.

REFERENDUM ON SITE FAVORED

Saanich Trustees Want Plebiscite on High School Site

Selection by the voters of Saanich of the site for the new high school will be recommended to the municipal council this evening by the Saanich School Board. At a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Royal Oak Municipal Hall, the trustees agreed that they would not be able to unite on selection of a site, that any choice would be vigorously criticized by a large proportion of the ratepayers, and that the simplest solution of the problem would be to take a vote on the issue.

An option to buy nearly six acres on Falmouth Road for $6,000 would cost $200, and the board found it had no legal authority to acquire the claim recommended by the municipal council. The proposal was therefore abandoned.

CHOICE OF FOUR
The trustees satisfied themselves that there was no legal necessity to specify the site of the high school in any by-law authorizing an issue of debentures, and will ask the council, when submitting a money by-law to the ratepayers, to give the voters of Saanich opportunity to vote on a referendum on four locations for the building: Rock Street Park, Falmouth Road, Carey Road or within half a mile of Royal Oak.

Mr. Davies will sail for Australia on April 2, to resume connection with a congregation near Sydney of which he was pastor some years ago. A son of Walsby, Rev. Mr. Davies held appointments in Liverpool and Cambridge prior to his residence in Australia. Rev. Mr. Davies came to Victoria from Mendocino, California, in November, 1927, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Dr. McCoy.

NEW BUILDING NEARLY READY

School Board Told Sir James Douglas Auditorium Will Be Fine Addition

The new auditorium at Sir James Douglas School is now in its final stage and will be ready for occupation after next month, it was reported to the City School Board yesterday evening.

The board authorized the contractors to proceed with cement work to the extent of $298 for entrance steps and interior wall finish.

The cost of the building was given as in the neighborhood of $7,164, exclusive of slight additional work not included in the contract. The auditorium would be a fine addition to the school, said Trustee W. C. Moresby, K.C., chairman of the building and grounds committee. Mr. Moresby also reported progress in the improvement of school grounds, and drew attention to the need for fencing at Victoria West School.

IRON FIREMAN PROPOSED

The board heard an exposition of the "Iron Fireman," from Paul Elliott and J. A. Mackay, representing the Kingman-Ottenspie Coal Company. Mr. Elliott, consulting engineer for the makers, stated a saving of about $400 a year could be effected through the use of the device at the George Jay School. A trial installation was offered, under suitable guarantees. The board took the matter under advisement.

The request of the Quinlan Parent-Teacher Association for a mimeograph machine for the school, with an offer to pay half the cost, was tabled. W. T. McGibbon wrote advocating better playground facilities for children after school hours in the Fairfield area. W. W. Mann wrote asking the removal of rocks at the Margaret Jenkins School, after an accident in which a boy cut his head in a fall.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE PROPOSED

The Department of Education of Manitoba volunteered the services of a temperance lecturer who will shortly tour the west. After some discussion the trustees decided that no official action would be taken in this connection.

The trustees were invited to attend the opening of the new Oak Bay High School at Cranmore Road on March 17, and will be represented.

Trustee J. L. Beckwith, chairman of the finance committee, presented reports showing expenditures of $100,167 to date.

Steel lockers for Victoria College were suggested, under a plan whereby undergraduates would help to pay for the installation by a loan system, voluntarily suggested by the student body. Final action on the plan was deferred, and the matter left with the finance committee for report.

After a two-hour meeting the board adjourned.

DAILY LENTEN THOUGHTS

By WM. E. GILROY, D.D.
Editor of The Congregationalist

Communion is the keynote of all deep and true Lenten experiences. We can never understand the Master, or enter into the fullness of His salvation and blessing, until we are willing to share His passion.

What the church calls the "Communion Service" centres around the symbols of the broken body and the life-blood poured out in sacrifice.

Perhaps the great mistake that we make is in trying to share the sufferings of Christ before we have learned to share His life. We try to bear the cross without the preparation of His teaching, and the inspiration of His companionship; the cross is too heavy to bear and we become discouraged. But the way to the cross is a long way—a way of love and companionship, a way of discipline and prayer.

Even Christ did not meet the cross at the beginning, but at the end of the way. And even as He prayed that the cup might pass He found strength to drink of it.

He who would find Christ near in the hour of need, he would find face life with courage and bear his cross, must first of all seek to know the Master in the common things of life. When we have learned to follow Him through fields and flowers, in communion with Him we shall find courage to follow where the way is steep and the path is thorny. We learn to do the hard thing and to bear the heavy load, through first learning to do the easy thing and through bearing faithfully the lighter load.

Possession of an investment income will be as well-nigh universal in this country by 1950 as is automobile ownership to-day, in the opinion of J. B. Ridgway, president of Investors' Syndicate.

Initial Payments On Coarse Grains Reduced By Pools

Winnipeg, March 13.—Although the wheat pools of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba have reduced the initial payments on oats and barley by ten cents a bushel and thirty-five cents on rye, payments on wheat and flax are unchanged. Reductions are as follows: the pool stated, bushel, Fort William: Rye, basis No. 2 c.w., reduced from 80c to 45c; barley, basis No. 2 c.w., reduced from 80c to 45c; oats, basis No. 2 c.w., reduced from 80c to 45c. Instructions were wired to agents of the pool last night, following decision at a board session yesterday.

film in the 1/100,000" space between the piston rings and cylinder walls of your high compression motor when the engine is hot.

Another advantage is that MOTORITE, solves oil dilution by "giving up" stray gasoline quickly in the form of vapor—without sacrificing the lubricating efficiency, or "life" of the oil.

Also, MOTORITE has a great capacity for giving up and carrying away heat. This feature assures cool bearings, and is noticed particularly when traveling long distances at sustained high speeds.

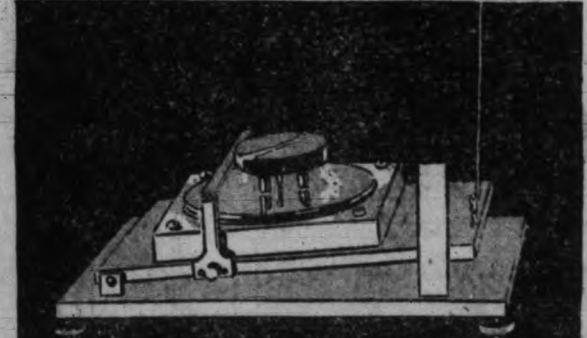

The small amount of carbon deposited by MOTORITE is soft and fluffy, much unlike the hard, gritty carbon common to most oils. This means no clogged or sticky valves due to carbon—less wear on your high compression motor.

And So It Lasts Longer!

Tests in the standard makes of automobiles prove that you can easily get 200 extra miles out of a crank case full of MOTORITE. Now, with MOTORITE you can drain at 200 miles farther than you have been in the habit of doing.

increasing rate of speed. Trends observed by our institution strongly indicate that capitalists, large and small, literally will be as numerous in 1950 as owners of automobiles are to-day."

In the case of the average man or woman, such extra income will not necessarily be large enough to eliminate the necessity of working. Mr. Ridgway believes, but will, however, substantially supplement the individual's regular wages as to permit a great many additional pleasures, longer vacation periods, and a general scale of living much higher than earnings alone would permit.

Growth of 300 per cent in the total national income in the last twenty years, enormous increase in employee stockholdings in great industrial and utility corporations, and the awakening of the average individual to interest in financial affairs, were among the factors cited by Mr. Ridgway as a basis for his prediction.

"Striking evidence of the trend is given by the monthly reports from fifty-one offices of Investors' Syndicate in Canada and the United States," said Mr. Ridgway. "Even a few years ago the vast majority of our investors began purchase of certificates in small denominations of $500 and $1,000 for lump sum purposes—that is, an investor planned on spending the money outright for some sizeable purchase upon maturity of his certificate."

BIG OIL WAR IS RENEWED; PRICES CUT

New York, March 13.—The New York Times to-day says Russian oil has brought the Standard Oil Company of New York into conflict again with the Royal Dutch Shell interests.

The former company, The Times says, is reported to have made a new contract to purchase 1,000,000 tons of refined petroleum products from the Soviet Republics. The contract is said to cover about five years and to involve a total of $25,000,000.

Standard Oil of New York and the Royal Dutch, through subsidiaries, have cut the price of refined oil products about $1 a barrel in the East Indies and the near-paper says it is reported price-cutting is about to be extended to other markets, including India.

U.S. PIG IRON TARIFF

Washington, March 13.—The United States Senate yesterday refused for the second time to increase the tariff on pig iron, and left in the bill a reduction won by the coalition Democrats and Republican Independents. The vote was forty-two to thirty-one against an amendment by Senator Grundy, Republican, Pennsylvania, to raise the present rate from $1.12½ to $1.40 a ton. The rate left in the bill is 75 cents a ton.

"Blackmail," which opened at the Capitol Theatre to-day, is a powerful, dramatic story graphically depicted by action pictures, with excellently reproduced dialogue spoken by a perfectly-cast company. the charm of reality and the convincing authority of authenticity.

"Blackmail" is the first all-talking feature film to be made in England, and while the recording was done by the R.C.A. photophone system, it has been universally hailed by the British press as an outstanding national success—and justly so.

"Blackmail" is first evidence that the talking picture provides a wonderful opportunity for the use of the wealth of talent that has long made the London stage a leader which has contributed each year several of New York's most brilliant and successful plays. The nation and stage which produced Shakespeare, Shaw, Barrie, Pinero, Chaplin, Forbes-Robertson, El-

MOTHER AND HER

IN SAME PICTURE

For the first time in the history of motion pictures, mother and daughter in real life enact similar roles in a film drama. The production is Columbia's all-talking epic of the sea, "Hurricane," which is being shown at the Playhouse Theatre. The picture was made under the direction of Ralph Ince with Hobart Bosworth in the stellar role. Lella McIntyre and Lella Hyams, the only women in the cast, are mother and daughter both in life and upon the screen.

DOMINION HAS JOHN
GARRICK IN LEAD

With eight of its leading players and technicians British by birth, "The Sky Hawk," which opened to-day at the Dominion Theatre is an all-talking feature of daringly courageous men, promises to be genuinely realistic also in its conversational quality. John Garrick, the leading man, one of the season's talkie finds was born in Brighton and under his real name of Reginald Dandy is well known on both the London and the Australian stage. Lennox Pawle and Lumsden Hare, who portray the fathers of the juvenile principals, are both Britishers and educated in London, although Hare was born in Ireland. The Welsh actor-writer, is both the author of the original story, "Chap Called Bardell" and of the screen adaptation and dialogue. He is a graduate of Llandudno College and served with the Canadian artillery during the war.

In spite of his Teutonic name, Theodore von Eltz, who has an important role in "The Rescue," now showing at the Columbia Theatre, is an American. Hollywood is full of past German soldiers, and diplomats go there to recruit their scattered fortunes since the Great War, but von Eltz, born and bred in the shade of New Haven climate, is strictly a native product, his father having been a professor of foreign language at Yale.

TWO HUSBANDS FOR ONE WIFE IN PLAY
ON ROYAL STAGE

"Meet the Wife," a play with a unique plot, full of humorous situations, is one of the funniest productions the Gordon McLeod Players have presented at the Royal Theatre so far. The six leading characters are all splendidly cast and Lillian Christine as the "managing" wife with two husbands gives one of the cleverest renderings of her career. Gordon McLeod, and Ernest Bodin give masterly performances as the two husbands. Roland Gillett has a part where his droll humor has full opportunity to show itself. Margaret St. Barbe-West and Claude Bailey as the young lovers give splendid support. The scene has been specially constructed for this play, and the general setting carefully chosen.

COMPLICATIONS IN VARIETY PLAY
CAUSE OF MIRTH

In the comedy, "The Other Woman," which the Toby Leitch Players present at the Variety Theatre this week, Irene Randolph not only wants her husband to marry after her death, but actually chooses another woman for him to marry. But she approves of Emily Ladey, the other woman, as long as Emily remains quiet and dowdy. When Emily suddenly blossoms forth as a charming, beautifully dressed woman, Irene loses her enthusiasm for the man she has quietly arranged without the knowledge of her husband. And when Emily, fearfully insulted that Irene should thoughtlessly refer to her as lacking in charm, decides to vamp the unsuspecting husband, Irene bitterly regrets the proposition. The result is comedy of a most hilarious kind.

PAUL MUNI MAKES AFFIDAVIT ON ROLES IN "SEVEN FACES"

Paul Muni, who plays in "Seven Faces," coming to the Playhouse Theatre next week, signed the following affidavit in connection with the film:

"Due to the fact that considerable argument has arisen as to whether I actually played the seven roles with which I am credited in 'Seven Faces,' Fox Movietone all-talking production, I, Paul Muni, being duly sworn, do hereby certify that I enacted the seven roles in which I appear, namely those of Don Juan, Napoleon, Diablero the Great, Franz Schubert, Willie Smith, Joe Gans and Papa Chibout, and in no manner whatsoever did I use a double either in the talking or photographic sequences."

A BLACK WEDDING GOWN THAT LOOKS FORWARD TO DIVORCE!

Allegedly symbolic of this modern age of disillusionment when marriage leads but to divorce, this arresting, stunning wedding gown of black Chantilly lace and black chiffon was worn in the black and gold marriage pageant at the spring opening of the Central Park Casino in New York.

The sophisticated interpretation of the color scheme is that black looks forward to the way when the golden dream of love has burst and divorce is sought in the courts. In a setting of golden lilies, with black and gold balloons floating overhead and golden draperies as a backdrop, the fair-haired bridesmaids in their black lace gowns, carrying lilies, and the demure bride in her lace draperies, seemed far too beautiful to be party to such a drear outlook on the wedded state.

The wedding gown, made by Nellie Harrington, Inc., was princess in line, with long mitt-cuffs, deep flounce and train and long, trailing veil of exquisite Chantilly lace. Lace, too, fashioned the cap of the veil, through which the bride's hair gleamed.

COPPER SLUMP
IN SPRING, NOW
BROOKMIRE FEAR

Consumption of Red Metal This Year Will Be 15 Per Cent Under 1929

Production Must Be Cut By
One-quarter; Supplies
Piling Up

A discouraging view of the copper outlook for 1930 is taken by Brookmire Economic Service, Inc., in its latest special report on the copper situation. Due to a slump in the sales of electrical goods, the biggest single consumer of copper, and a similar sizeable decrease in the automobile industry, producers will have a hard time to maintain the 18-cent price level for copper, the report points out.

"Total copper requirements in the main consuming channels for 1930 compared with the 1929 rate will show a reduction of 15 per cent," says the report. "This estimate of decline is computed conservatively and should be looked upon as a minimum. A collapse of the price structure is inevitable eventually, and the balance of probability appears to be swinging toward its actual occurrence this spring."

EXPORTS DROPPING OFF

"As a matter of record it is interesting to recall that estimated copper consumption by even the telephone and telegraph companies as well as the light and power companies, registered a good-sized decrease in the last preceding business decline, that is, in 1927. At the present time we are experiencing a sharper recession in business than in 1927."

"Turning from the domestic situation to the foreign, there is little need to emphasize the drop that has already occurred in exports, since its extent is quite large. Among the major importing countries, France is the only country whose takings of copper were large in 1929. The two countries that ordinarily take the greatest amounts—the United Kingdom and Germany—both showed decreases from 1929."

"The next two months will constitute a critical period for copper producers. In contrast with the stock of copper of less than 50,000 tons in the fall of 1929, the current figure exceeds 200,000 tons; in view of this ample total and at a time when their requirements are diminishing, consumers are unlikely to buy liberally."

"In the face of such an unfavorable outlook for consumption, the recent rate of production has been excessive. Production must be curtailed 18 per cent from the 1929 rate in order to be no larger than the monthly average consumption in prospect for 1930; from the peak that production reached in the spring of 1929, curtailment must exceed 25 per cent. The odds against producers in their price-maintenance effort are mounting. As long as there is hope of reviving demand they naturally endeavor to keep the price pegged at 18 cents, as a breakdown would mean a cut not merely to 16 cents, but perhaps to 14 cents and eventually 12 cents."

FIFTY-SEVEN ARE EXECUTED IN AFGHANISTAN

Teheran, Persia, March 13.—A report from Kabul, Afghanistan, to-day stated fifty-seven adherents of the usurper Bacha Sakao, who was ousted and put to death by Nadir Shah last year, had been executed by Nadir Shah's orders. After the fall of Bacha Sakao, who was known as "Water-boy of the North," the men had attached themselves to Than Mohammed, a notorious robber.

PENSIONS ACT CHANGES ARE TO BE SUPPORTED

Ottawa, March 13.—Judging from press comments and reports, there is a great deal of misunderstanding regarding the intent and purpose of the War Veterans' Allowance Bill, which has been referred to the parliamentary committee on veterans' problems," said Lieut.-Col. L. B. La Fleche, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion, in an interview.

"There is a belief in some quarters," said Col. La Fleche, "that this bill is intended to amend or revise the Pensions Act. That is not the case. It is an entirely separate measure and, instead of having anything to do with the Pensions Act, it is intended to take care of those war veterans who cannot qualify for disability pensions and therefore cannot come within the scope of the Pensions Act."

"The proposals of the Canadian Legion for amendments to the Pensions Act, formulated at the Dominion convention at Regina last fall, have not yet been brought forward, but they will be entirely apart from the bill providing for burn-out and prematurely-aged men, which the Legion is prepared to support in principle before the committee."

"I make this statement," said Col. La Fleche, "in order to clear away the misunderstanding that has arisen to the effect that no other remedial measures for war veterans are to be considered."

"SEVEN DAYS' LEAVE"

From the Famous Play
BY SIR JAMES M. BARRETT

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

Winnipeg, March 13.—Wheat: Market gave evidence of a little more strength to-day. Early prices were 1 1/2 cent above the previous close, chiefly due to the strength in Liverpool, but there was a little buying by exporters who had booked a small business overnight, while mills also took small amounts and local shorts covered. However, the demand was largely filled in the first half hour and prices fell away, getting 1 1/2 under last night's close, but some further export business came in on the decline and prices again reacted, only to meet further selling.

Report sales overnight and this morning were estimated at around half a million bushels, not large, but this is practically the first business directly out of this market in ten days. As most of the business going on has been done from seaboard stocks and not reflected here.

Generally speaking there was just a fair demand for cash wheat, although somewhat improved from the past few days. Offerings were very light and actual business small. Spreads mostly unchanged. Unfavorable reports from Kansas and other sections of the winter wheat belt were numerous to-day, and were complaining of the lack of rain and prevailing high winds. On the other hand the weather forecast was for unsettled conditions.

There were no business to-day that European importers were beginning to show a little more interest in our wheat. Larger sales are anticipated provided the market holds reasonably steady. Coarse grains: These markets continue dull and draggy with prices easier. There is not much pressure on these markets, but the demand is very slow with practically nothing doing in any direction.

Flax: Steady but featureless. No demand and offerings very light.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

Can Marriage Be Made a Life of Carefree Joy?
Folly of the Girl Who Risks Her Reputation
Just to Be "Modern" — A Sister's Duty?

DEAR MISS DIX—I am soon to be married to a girl whom I love very much, but when we are married she wants to settle down and have children. But not for me. I don't see why we shouldn't continue to go to parties and dances after we are married just the same as we do now. Why should we tie ourselves down just because we are married? My idea of a happy married life is one of carefree joy and I don't want to be burdened with children. I make plenty of money and I think that we should spend at least the first five years of our married life just having a good time and enjoying each other's companionship without taking on the worries of babies.

WORRIED YOUNG MAN.

Answer: When a couple is childless, the woman is practically always blamed for it and is accused of being too cowardly to face the ordeal of bearing children, or too lazy and selfish to be willing to burden herself with the care of babies.

But, judging from the innumerable letters that come to me on the subject, there are more men than women who do not want to have children. They don't want the noise and confusion of children in the house when they come home at night, and, above all, they don't want to spend their money on babies and sterilized milk instead of golf and gasoline. It is significant that, as social settlement workers tell us, the husbands who become wise deserters nearly always disappear immediately after another baby is born.

But every man to his taste, whether it runs to stepping out of an evening or walking the cat, and if yours, Mr. Young Man, are not paternal, I strongly advise against getting married. Because, welcome or unwelcome, babies are mighty likely to come along, especially if you marry a girl with the mother complex, and whose arms just naturally form themselves into a cradle.

Most of us don't see eye to eye with you about children. We think that a marriage that is childless is more or less of a failure, no matter how companionable the husband and wife may be. We think that a baby is more fun and entertainment than a box of monkeys; that watching a little child's mind unfold is the most thrilling and fascinating occupation in the world; that one renews one's own life in growing boys and girls, and that to rear up a family of fine men and women is to make the greatest gift that is possible to one's day and generation.

But if you think differently; if you see in a baby nothing but a squalling brat that is going to keep you at home when you want to go to a night club; if you see in your children nothing but little parasites who will absorb the money that you might be spending on good clothes or booze, then, for goodness sake, don't get married.

For your own sake and for the girl's sake, stay single. Don't be unjust enough to marry a girl and when the babies come resent them, and leave her alone to rear them. A lot of men do that. Every time a new baby comes along they make their wives feel that she is an arch-criminal to have afflicted another mouth on them to feed.

A lot of men don't like the noise of children and as soon as dinner is over they put on their hats and go out to some place of amusement, leaving the poor wives to listen to the racket they have heard all day. A lot of men never do one single thing toward helping to rear their children and start them along the road they should go. A lot of men take more trouble training a setter pup than they do their own children.

So if you are not going to be a real father, don't be a father at all. That way will save yourself a lot of responsibility and you won't have to answer some embarrassing questions on the Judgment Day when you are asked what you did with the little souls that God put into your hands to mold, and why you let that fine boy grow up into a wastrel, or that pretty, impulsive young daughter stumble off the "straight and narrow" way.

And don't go into married life thinking it is one of carefree joy, because you are due for a big shock of disappointment if you do. Marriage is the end of playtime and the beginning of the serious business of life. It is the acceptance of the responsibilities of existence. It is the shouldering of burdens that must be borne to the end. It is settling down as your father says, and unless you are prepared for that you have no right to marry.

But I can tell you one thing for your comfort, and that is that our taste in good times changes. All the fun in the world does not consist in stepping out. Staying in by your own fire and can be even more enjoyable. Not will you, always care to dance and racket and make whoops, and the chances are that in your own home, with your own wife smiling at you, across the table of an evening and your babies' arms cuddled around your neck, you will find a far more intense pleasure than you ever got out of any wild party.

And there won't be any dark brown taste of regret in your mouth the next morning, either.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—We are so puzzled to know what is the proper thing in this modern age. We have two young daughters and their ideas and ours are so different. They call us "back numbers" and "evil-minded" when we try to restrain them from doing certain things. For instance, not long ago we were away from home and one of the girls entertained a boy friend all night. When we reproved her for this, she contended it was no harm and that we were evil-minded to think so. This hurt us terribly and we wonder what should be done.

A FATHER AND MOTHER WHO ARE BEWILDERED.

Answer: Just what the young people of to-day consider the word "modern" means, I am sure I don't know. A girl will write me that she is modern, that she drinks and pets and smokes and swears and is loose morally, and she seems to think that that is being modern.

But there is nothing new or modern about that. Since the beginning of time there have been women in the gutters; there have been women of uncontrolled appetites and passions; there have been women who drank like fish and reeled down the street; there have been women who swore like fishwives; there have been scarlet women. Such women are not, alas, modern. They are no new type. They are old. Old as sin and human weakness itself.

So I always feel a little bit like laughing and a good deal more like crying when a girl who is taking the wrong road, tells me that she is "modern," and that there is something new about what she is doing. Why, she is the oldest-fashioned thing in all history. The stories of her predecessors are written on the hieroglyphics on the pyramids in Egypt. There are legends of them that go farther back than that, to the Dark Ages, and she is following what has been called the oldest profession in the world for women.

Your daughter, and girls like her, consider that they are being very sophisticated when they snap their fingers in Mrs. Grundy's face and defy conventions, but in reality they are just showing what simple-minded, ignorant creatures they are. For if they knew the world better and had had more experience of society, they would know that it isn't enough for a girl to be good, she has to act good.

Furthermore, they would know that the whole world is "evil-minded," as they call it, when it comes to a girl doing certain things that are taboo, because nobody can imagine a girl being silly enough to risk her reputation for nothing. What a girl's motives may be, we do not know. We can only judge her by what she does, and if she does the things that no respectable girl is supposed to do, she can't expect to escape criticism.

I don't know what you can do about your daughter's indiscretions unless you can induce them to memorize a good book on etiquette. Perhaps if they can see that certain things are simply "not done" it will have some influence in restraining them in their folly.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I know that my sister's husband is deceiving her. Is it my duty to tell her? She has no idea of it. A FOND SISTER.

Answer: No. She will find it out soon enough. Let her live in her fool's paradise as long as she can. To tell her would do no good. If her husband is unfaithful to her, there is nothing that she can do to stop him.

OAK BAY BUS ISSUE UP IN LEGISLATURE

Hayward Motion to Send Rejected Bill Back to Committee Carries

New Evidence Should Be Heard in Franchise Appeal, Says Victoria Member

The application of the Veterans' Sightseeing and Transportation Company for an exclusive franchise to run buses in Oak Bay, rejected by the private bills committee of the Legislature, was revived yesterday when B. Hayward was successful in securing the passage of an amendment that the private bill be referred back to the committee for new evidence to be presented.

The motion of C. F. Davis, chairman of the private bills committee, that the report throwing out the bill be adopted, was defeated. Votes on both the amendment and the motion were unrecorded. Mr. Davis, in opposing the amendment of Mr. Hayward, claimed that the latter had not indicated sufficiently what the new evidence was to be and resented the suggestion that it should be referred back. He had heard suggestions of disgraceful lobbying being carried on, and also it had been said that if the bill were not passed, it would have dire effects on the next election. As chairman of the private bills committee, he refused to be the creature of politics.

FEELS INJUSTICE DONE

In speaking to his amendment, which was seconded by James H. Beatty, Mr. Hayward reviewed the history of the service, the refusal of the B.C. Electric to establish the service when the Oak Bay Council sought it, and the entry of the Blue Line into the field. All other committees were busy at the time the matter came before the private bills committee, and some members of the committee on other committees also were not able to attend. He felt if the report rejecting the bill were adopted, an injustice would be done to residents in some sections of Oak Bay which for years had suffered from lack of adequate transportation facilities. Repeated applications to the B.C. Electric for an extension of the service to well-populated areas of Oak Bay had been refused until the Oak Bay Council had been forced to go elsewhere. The council entered into an agreement with the Blue Line, as the Veterans' Sightseeing and Transportation Company was known, and on January 18 submitted a referendum to the electors, assent to which meant the Blue Line would be given an exclusive franchise, subject to the approval of the Legislature.

Major A. Rowan, who has been visiting his property on Ganges Harbor for a few days, returned to his home in Vancouver on Tuesday. The North Saanich School football team came over to Salt Spring Island on Saturday morning by launch, to play the Ganges schoolboys' team. Several cars met the team at Pufford and brought them up to Ganges where the game was played on the Mahon Hall grounds, refereed by Mr. Wm. Evans, ending in favor of Ganges 2-1. Refreshments were served to the visitors before returning to Sidney.

Mrs. P. Hall and small son of Victoria are guests of Mrs. Hall's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wagg, Ganges.

Rev. Canon W. J. Flinton and Mrs. Flinton returned on Tuesday after a visit to Victoria.

Mrs. Morris of Victoria is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eaton, at the "White House," Pufford Harbor.

The Pufford Frolics met on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mollett for their usual weekly social gathering. Prize winners at cards were: Ladies, first prize, Mrs. W. Cassey; second, Miss Dorothy Lee; first gentleman, Gerald Jackson and second, B. Akerman. Refreshments were served.

The young people will hold a novelty dance on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, in the Institute Hall at Pufford. All attending will be dressed as children, and the party will be known as "The Kids' night out." A large number of tombola prizes will be given away, and Eaton's orchestra will be in attendance.

Continuing, Mr. Hayward said that in the case of the Blue Line, the Oak Bay Council had the power to fix both the route and the fares. They would not have this power in the case of the B.C. Electric Company, which had refused to consider such an agreement.

Last year a similar franchise for Saanich had been given to J. S. H. Matson, said Mr. Hayward, knowing that he was going to form a company and operate when he secured the franchise. The House could not reverse its policy this year, Mr. Hayward thought. In the private bills committee the president of the B.C. Electric Railway Company was asked whether he objected to Mr. Matson being granted a franchise, and he replied in the negative, stating his company was not interested in Saanich. That was only half of the story. The president did not say that for years a service had been operated in Saanich, and was a failure because it avoided the thickly-populated areas of the municipality. He never said the line was pulled up and the people of Saanich were told they could walk. At the time he was mayor of Victoria, Mr. Hayward was one of those who asked the company to at least leave a part service for Saanich.

Regarding the Oak Bay service, the president of the B.C. Electric Railway Company said he realized now that a mistake had been made. One argument offered against an exclusive franchise was that the Blue Line at one time had offered to sell out for $50,000 and

FRECKLES

March Worst Month. Will Stay All Summer if Neglected

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March; but happily there is also a treatment for these ugly, rusty blemishes so reliable and simple that no one need stay freckled. Get a jar of Othine Double Strength from any drug or department store. Just a few nights' use of this dainty white cream and you will know the joy of seeing every last freckle leave your face, revealing the fair, lovely, milk-white skin that has been hiding away under those homely, rusty-brown spots. March is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they will stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if Othine does not satisfy. (Adv.)

ADD THIS ONE TO YOUR DAILY DOZEN

$15,000 for equipment. But that was when the company was operating at a loss. When the service first started, 200 passengers were carried daily. Now from 2,000 to 2,200 were carried daily. The Blue Line was not particularly interested in the service when first approached by Oak Bay, but had agreed to take a chance. In this connection Mr. Hayward mentioned the Vancouver Island Transportation Company had looked over the field, and when it was found that buses had to run a mile and a quarter from the city boundary, had declined to become interested. The present bus service was appreciated by Oak Bay residents. Some people who used to take twenty minutes to get to town on a street car now made the trip in ten minutes. Others who had previously a walk of from ten to fifteen minutes to a street car reached town now in twenty minutes.

Seconding Mr. Hayward's amendment, Mr. Beatty said he understood on good authority that new evidence could be presented to the committee. At the time the bill was before the committee many of the members were absent on other committees.

MUST BE FINALITY
Mr. Davis replied that although there was not a full meeting of the committee, there was a quorum. There must be some finality to committee decisions. If a decision were made by a committee and the House decided that it should be withdrawn, there must be grounds for doing so. On a motion to refer the bill to the committee, there should be some suggestion of new evidence, and he submitted that none had been offered. The fact that tracks at Saanich had been pulled up had nothing to do with the subject.

The committee felt that, in view of the rapid growth in automobile transportation, the principle should be enunciated that exclusive franchises should not be granted.

"What about arterial highways?" T. D. Pattullo, leader of the opposition, remarked.

"That was not before the committee," Mr. Davis replied.

Mr. Davis claimed the Blue Line would not be injured. They could still operate.

NO CREATURE OF POLITICS
"Because some members want this in a different way is no reason why this should go back to the private bills committee," Mr. Davis remarked.

"I have been told some reasons, and they are not nice reasons. There have been suggestions of lobbying being carried on that has been disgraceful. It has been suggested to me that if the committee do not reconsider their decision, it will have a dire effect on the next election. As chairman of the private bills committee, I am not going to be the creature of politics."

After Capt. Mackenzie had suggested that to pass the motion as it read would be tantamount to a vote of no confidence, Mr. Hayward agreed to the words "on new evidence to be added" being added to the amendment calling for the report to be referred back to the committee.

Mr. Pattullo did not think it was any reflection on the committee, to refer the report back to them. On a motion so important as the one before them, the House should be able to do so without reflection. Judges sometimes had to reconsider their decisions. It was not questioning the integrity or good intentions of the committee. They could approach the matter free

SENT BY ARCHDUCHESS

Austria's Napoleonic jewels were valued at $400,000, but all the Archduchess Maria Theresa got out of the sale of them in the United States was $7,270. In the above picture Assistant District Attorney Hastings of New York, right, and Anne Eismenger, a representative of the Archduchess, are shown examining a picture of the treasured diamond necklace as a search was begun for the gem brokers who are alleged to have taken $52,730 as "commission" from the sale.

Dominion and a significant clause in the agreement provides that if the Province gives the Dominion any land for park purposes in the future, then these areas shall come under the terms of the present arrangement, that is, shall be subject entirely to Federal control in every way.

The Dominion keeps all lands on which it has extended loans to war veterans, under the Soldier Settlement Act.

The Province will not dispose of any historic site which the Dominion wishes preserved, and will preserve all bird sanctuaries, establishing additional sanctuaries on agreement between the two governments.

The present Federal subsidy of $100,000 a year will be paid to the Province as in the past.

The agreement will come into effect after being approved by the Canadian Parliament, the Legislature and the Imperial Government.

An appendix to the agreement specifies the parks to be retained by the Federal Government as: Mount Revelstoke, Glacier National, Yoho National and Kootenay National Parks.

MORLEY PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS

Two and a half acres of land in the high level district of Victoria and two houses on Montrose Avenue, the property of ex-Mayor A. J. Morley, changed hands as the result of a deal completed this week. Dr. M. E. Church of Calgary is the purchaser. The consideration was not named.

The fine brick home of Mr. Morley and an adjoining house on the same property are to be used in connection with a vidualium, said Dr. Church. The Morley property stands on high ground, with the main residence at 1246 Montrose Avenue, and extends

RAILWAY BELT TRANSFER BILL IS INTRODUCED

Federal Subsidy of $100,000 a Year Will Continue, House Is Told

All Details Are Given to Legislators; Imperial Government to Approve

Legislation transferring the Railway Belt and the Peace River Block from Canada to British Columbia, the objective of provincial statesmen for a quarter of a century, was introduced into the Legislature yesterday by Premier Tolmie. The long-expected bill is brief, consisting of three small paragraphs which empower the government to carry out a land transfer agreement with the Federal authorities, this arrangement requiring also the consent of the Imperial Government.

The agreement, as attached to the bill, is exactly along the lines already disclosed to the House by the premier, in announcing the consummation of the land deal. It provides that the Dominion shall keep all money it has received for land within the transferred areas, and that the Province must carry out all the commitments and obligations incurred by the Dominion. Ordinance and Admiralty lands in the area, already handed over to the Imperial Government for military and naval purposes may be handed back to Canada, and will not come to the Province. Any such lands already handed back to Canada remain with the Dominion. To determine the boundaries of such lands the agreement provides for arbitration by two persons, one appointed by the Dominion and one by the Province. If they disagree an umpire will be selected by the Dominion and the Province.

Any present wharf sites used by the Dominion remain with it, but if they are abandoned will revert to the Province.

DOMINION KEEPS HARBORS
The Dominion keeps its present harbor and also the foreshores and beds of the Fraser and Pitt Rivers lying above the eastern boundaries of New Westminster harbor, and below lines to be defined by agreement at the junction of Kanaka Creek with the Fraser River, and at the point of the exit of the Pitt River from Pitt Lake.

The Canadian-National Railways right-of-way through the Sumas dyked lands is confirmed.

Indian reserves remain with the Dominion, but will revert to the Province when they cease to be used.

Domination parks remain with the Province.

BODY OF WOMAN FOUND; HUSBAND IS MISSING

Hamilton, Ont., March 13. — Mrs. Lottie Smith, forty-five, was found strangled to death in her home here yesterday evening. Police believe she was the victim of foul play. Her husband, C. W. Smith, forty-two, was being sought, police said, but they expressed the opinion he took his life in the Desjardins Canal.

The body of the woman was found lying fully clothed on a bed, bruises covered the face.

Smith is believed to have jumped into the canal yesterday afternoon. His coat, containing the house key, was found before the murder had been discovered, and footprints led to a hole in the ice of the canal. He was seen about the canal.

Police believe the crime was committed Tuesday. Roomers cared for the Smith's seven-year-old son Tuesday night when neither one of them put in appearance at the rooming house where they lived.
